DAVE VAN HORN

Head Coach

9 College World Series

23 NCAA Tournaments • 10 SEC Championships

Dave Van Horn, the three-time SEC Coach of the Year, enters his 22nd season at the helm of the Arkansas baseball program in 2024.

Over his 21 seasons as Head Hog, Van Horn has elevated Arkansas into one of the nation's premier programs. Van Horn has led the Razorbacks to seven College World Series appearances, 19 NCAA Tournament berths, three SEC overall titles, seven SEC Western Division championships, one SEC Tournament title and a total of 839 wins, including 333 SEC victories.

Since returning to his alma mater to take over for retiring legendary Arkansas head baseball coach Norm DeBriyn, Van Horn has continued to successfully field nationally competitive teams while also grooming two Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy winners in outfielder Andrew Benintendi (2015) and pitcher Kevin Kopps (2021) as well as numerous All-Americans, all-conference performers and future professional baseball players. Under his guidance, 32 Razorbacks have earned All-America honors, 46 have garnered All-SEC recognition and 136 have heard their names called in the Major League Baseball draft.

The second-winningest coach in Arkansas history, Van Horn has led the Razorbacks to 839 wins, including 333 SEC victories, entering the 2024 season. He is one of only five head coaches in college baseball history, along with Ron Polk, Mike Bianco, Skip Bertman and Tim Corbin, with 300 or more SEC wins in their career.

Including his years at Nebraska, Northwestern State and Central Missouri State, Van Horn's 1,210 wins at four-year institutions rank sixth-most among all active Division I head coaches. Including his 214 wins at Texarkana Community College, Van Horn's 1,424 overall wins are the most among all active Division I head coaches.

The highly decorated coach has received numerous individual and team honors throughout his 35-year coaching resume, beginning at Texarkana Community College through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year three times and conference coach of the year six times. His teams have made nine College World Series appearances, won seven outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 23 trips to the NCAA Tournament in the last 26 years.

Entering the 2024 season, Van Horn is one of only 10 head coaches, and one of only five SEC head coaches along with Pat McMahon (Mississippi State & Florida), Paul Mainieri (Notre Dame & LSU), Jim Schlossnagle (TCU & Texas A&M) and Jay Johnson (Arizona & LSU), in NCAA history to lead two different programs to the College World Series. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

One of the things that Van Horn is known for is recruiting fundamental players and molding them into the stars of tomorrow. In 2003, his first full season at Arkansas, only four Hogs were taken in the MLB draft. That number has grown significantly over the years, with a school-record 11 players being drafted in the 2013 MLB Draft.

Six former Arkansas stars under Van Horn – Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010), Ryne Stanek (2013), Benintendi (2015) and Heston Kjerstad (2020) – have been selected in the first round of the MLB draft. 59 of his players have been picked in the first 10 rounds since he took over at the helm, with Jaxon Wiggins (2nd-C round, Chicago Cubs), Hunter Hollan (3rd round, Cincinnati Reds), Tavian Josenberger (3rd round, Baltimore Orioles), Jace Bohrofen (6th round, Toronto Blue Jays) and Jared Wegner (9th round, New York Yankees) most recently hearing their names called in the first 10 rounds of the 2023 MLB Draft.

Sixty-five total former Razorbacks have played in the MLB, including 23 former standouts under Van Horn such as 2015 American League Cy Young Award winner Dallas Keuchel and All-Stars Benintendi and James McCann. Three former Van Horn pupils – Isaiah Campbell (Seattle Mariners), Dominic Fletcher (Arizona Diamondbacks) and Kjerstad (Baltimore Orioles) – made their MLB debuts in 2023.

There were 13 former Hogs on an MLB roster in 2023, including Brian Anderson (Milwaukee Brewers), Jalen Beeks (Tampa Bay Rays), Benintendi (Chicago White Sox), Campbell (Seattle Mariners), Fletcher (Arizona Diamondbacks), Zach Jackson (Oakland Athletics), Keuchel (Minnesota Twins), Kjerstad (Baltimore Orioles), McCann (Baltimore Orioles), Matt Reynolds (Cincinnati Reds), Drew Smyly (Chicago Cubs), Stanek (Houston Astros) and Trevor Stephan (Cleveland Guardians). All 13 played under Van Horn during their time as Razorbacks.

After Smyly hoisted the Commissioner's Trophy with the Atlanta Braves in 2021, Stanek became the sixth former Razorback, and the fourth Razorback to have played for Van Horn, to win an MLB title when he and the Houston Astros were crowned champions in 2022. Stanek joined Dick Hughes (St. Louis Cardinals, 1967), Eric Hinske (Boston Red Sox, 2007/New York Yankees, 2009), Keuchel (Houston Astros, 2017), Benintendi (Boston Red Sox, 2018) and Smyly (Atlanta Braves, 2021) as former Razorbacks with a World Series ring.

Van Horn has been successful from the moment he took over the program from DeBriyn in 2003. During his first season as Head Hog, Van Horn guided his inaugural squad to both the SEC and NCAA tournaments. His Razorbacks were ranked in all four major baseball polls throughout the year and picked up series wins at No. 6 South Carolina and No. 5 Auburn.

In 2023, Van Horn's 21st and most recent season at the helm, the Razorbacks posted a 43-18 overall record, claiming their fourth overall SEC championship and their second in the last three seasons. The Hogs hit 92 home runs during the historic campaign, tying for fourth-most in a season in program history. Arkansas also became the only SEC program, and one of just two teams in the country along with Southern Miss, to record 40 or more victories in each of the last six full seasons.

The success of the program as well as Van Horn's no-nonsense approach has endeared him to the Razorback faithful. The Arkansas fan base has grown steadily since Van Horn was given the reins to the program, and three renovations have been completed at Baum-Walker Stadium since his arrival to accommodate the rapid growth. The best college ballpark in America has grown with the addition of nearly 5,000 chair back seats, 32 luxury boxes and the construction of the JB and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center, which opened in 2022. Prior to the 2016 season, a 71-by-25 square foot videoboard, one of the largest in the country, was installed to dramatically improve the in-game experience.

In 2023, Baum-Walker Stadium drew a record 370,940 total fans over 38 home dates, marking the 20th straight year that Arkansas ranked in the top five in the nation in attendance. The season before, the Hogs led the country in both total (363,153) and average attendance (10,376). 2022 was the second time in school history that Arkansas led the nation in both categories, also accomplishing the feat in 2007.

Baum-Walker Stadium was filled to the brim throughout the 2022 campaign for good reason. Arkansas posted a 46-21 overall record in 2022, highlighted by the program's 11th trip to the College World Series and its third trip to Omaha since the 2018 season. At the time, the Razorbacks were the only team in the country with at least 45 wins in each of the last five full seasons.

In 2021, Arkansas won 50 games for only the fourth time in program history, claiming its first SEC overall title since 2004 and its first outright SEC crown since 1999. The Razorbacks became only the second team since the SEC expanded to 30 games to win all 10 of their conference series. Arkansas capped its regular-season SEC championship with the program's first SEC Tournament championship, becoming only the third SEC team since league play expanded in 2012 to win both the regular season and tournament championship in the same season.

Kopps put together one of the most spectacular seasons in college baseball history under Van Horn's watch in 2021, winning both the Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy after posting a 12-1 record with 11 saves and logging a school-record and nation-best 0.90 ERA. Kopps struck out 131 batters, third-most for a single season in school history, while walking just 18 and allowing only nine runs all year.

The Razorbacks were on their way to another strong showing in 2020, posting an 11-5 record before the season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Arkansas started the season on a 7-0 run, sweeping its first two opponents over the first two weeks of play. Van Horn had arguably the best hitter in college baseball in 2020 in Kjerstad, who led the team in seven offensive categories while also leading the SEC in hits (30), total bases (53) and slugging percentage (.791).

Kjerstad, recognized as the SEC's best hitter by D1Baseball following the shortened season, was ultimately selected by the Baltimore Orioles with the second overall pick of the 2020 MLB Draft, becoming the Razorbacks' highest draft pick since Jeff King was taken first overall by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 1986 MLB Draft.

In 2019, Van Horn's Hogs put together another stellar campaign, ending in a 46-20 overall record with a whopping 33 wins coming at Baum-Walker Stadium. The Razorbacks went 20-10 in conference action, claiming a share of the SEC West Division title and the No. 2 overall seed in the SEC Tournament. Arkansas was selected as one of eight national seeds to host throughout the NCAA Regionals and NCAA Super Regionals, slotted at fifth for the second consecutive season.

It was the eighth time that Baum-Walker Stadium was chosen as a postseason host site, and the first time in program history to be selected in three straight seasons.

The Razorbacks blew through regional action with a win over Central Connecticut, followed by a pair of victories over TCU for a sweep of opening weekend of postseason play. Arkansas faced a familiar foe in the Super Regional round, taking on Ole Miss in Fayetteville, rolling in game one, 11-2. After falling in game two, the Razorbacks pounced on the Rebels early in the winner-take-all game three, finishing off Ole Miss to clinch a berth to the College World Series.

Van Horn made his eighth overall appearance in Omaha, his sixth with the Hogs, to give Arkansas its 10th trip in its illustrious history. It was the first time Arkansas had made the College World Series in back-to-back years.

The 2019 squad was led by a program-high nine All-SEC honorees, with six earning second-team honors – Trevor Ezell (1B), Casey Martin (SS), Fletcher (OF), Kjerstad (OF), Matt Goodheart (DH), Cronin (RP) – and three earning all-freshman praise – Patrick Wicklander (SP), Connor Noland (SP), Christian Franklin (OF). Campbell (SP), meanwhile, was a consensus All-American, earning first-team honors from the ABCA to go with his five second-team accolades.

The 2018 season was one of Van Horn's best as the Razorback skipper, winning 48 games and reaching the College World Series finals for the first time in his career and for the second time in program history (1979). The 48 wins was, at the time, the most for any Van Horn-led team in Arkansas history, and the Hogs made a nearimpeccable run through the NCAA Tournament. The Razorbacks, the No. 5 overall seed, went a perfect 3-0 in the NCAA Fayetteville Regional, defeating Oral Roberts, Southern Miss, and Dallas Baptist to reach their seventh Super Regional in school history. The Hogs went on to secure a spot in Omaha for the ninth time in school history, winning a three-game series against SEC-foe South Carolina.

In Omaha, Arkansas barreled through the winner's bracket, defeating Texas, Texas Tech and defending national-champion Florida for a spot in the finals. Arkansas won the first game of the finals against Oregon State, but the Beavers came out on top in games two and three. Nonetheless, the state of Arkansas was well-represented on the national stage as the Razorbacks became one of only 13 teams with five or more College World Series appearances since the year 2000.

Seven different Razorbacks earned either All-America or All-SEC status at the end of the season, including infielder Carson Shaddy, who was named a third-team All-American by D1Baseball and garnered first-team All-SEC accolades. Pitcher Blaine Knight was named a first-team All-American by D1Baseball and second-team All-American by the NCBWA. Kjerstad and Martin both turned in one of the best seasons by a freshman duo in the nation as they were named consensus All-Americans by Collegiate Baseball, the NCBWA, and D1Baseball.

Along with the numerous postseason honors, Kjerstad was named the SEC Freshman of the Year after hitting .332 over 69 games with an Arkansas freshman record 87 hits, 14 home runs, and 145 total bases. Martin turned in nearly identical numbers, leading the team with a .345 average over 67 games and matching Kjerstad with 87 hits of his own. He hit 13 home runs and drove in 49 RBI while stealing eight bases.

A year after missing the NCAA Tournament for the first time since becoming head coach at Arkansas, Van Horn was determined to not only right the ship in 2017 but return to the high level of success that the Razorbacks have enjoyed for decades.

A 19-game turnaround translated to a 45-win season for the Razorbacks, their seventh 40-win season in the last 10 years. Arkansas also hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time since 2010, reaching the final game against Missouri State in what was the sixth regional ever played at Baum Stadium.

A pivotal part of the season that led to that regional host came in the final month at the SEC Tournament. After multiple delays led to Arkansas not even playing its first game until two days after the scheduled date, the Hogs battled back from a first round loss to Mississippi State to run the table and reach the tournament final for the first time since 2007 and fourth time in school history.

The tournament turned out to be the Chad Spanberger show as he earned tournament MVP honors with a pair of multi-home run games and a pair of SEC Tournament single-game records for home runs (three vs. Auburn) and runs batted in (seven vs. Auburn). In the five games of the tournament, Spanberger led all players with 10 runs batted in, three doubles, five home runs, and 26 total bases.

Arkansas led all SEC teams during the season and finished tied for ninth in the nation with 83 home runs. Spanberger led the team with 20 home runs, good for second in the SEC and ninth in the nation. He was just the sixth player in program history to hit 20 or more home runs in a single season.

Across the board, Arkansas' hitters were among the best in the country in 2017. Joining Spanberger, Grant Koch (13), and Fletcher (12) also hit 10 or more home runs making Arkansas one of two teams in the SEC to have three players with 10 or more home runs. For Fletcher, his 12 home runs were just one less than the Arkansas freshman record for home runs in a season as he not only earned an SEC All-Freshman Team nod but was also named a Freshman All-American by the National College Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) and Baseball America.

With the monstrous final month performance by Spanberger, he joined five other Razorbacks that were drafted in the 2017 MLB First-Year Player Draft. Stephan (3rd round, New York Yankees) led the class, followed by Spanberger (6th round, Colorado Rockies), Cannon Chadwick (9th round, New York Mets), Dominic Taccolini (10th round, San Diego Padres), Knight (29th round, Texas Rangers), and Josh Alberius (36th round, Miami Marlins). Knight opted to return for his junior season.

The 2015 season might have been one of the most memorable in Razorback history. Arkansas rebounded from a 15-15 record on April 4 to win 18 of their final 25 regular season games and surge into postseason play. After going 2-2 in the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks became one of five teams in the country to advance to 14 consecutive NCAA tournaments, claiming the No. 2 seed in the Stillwater Regional hosted by Oklahoma State.

In one of Van Horn's best coaching jobs of his lengthy career, the Razorbacks went 3-0 in the Stillwater Regional and came back home to host the second Super Regional in program history, knocking off Missouri State in three games for the most improbable College World Series appearance in Arkansas' storied history. Van Horn made his sixth trip to Omaha, including his fourth as the Razorback skipper.

During the run to Omaha, Benintendi put together one of the finest seasons in Razorback history. Benintendi became the first Arkansas player to win the Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's best amateur player. He also won the Dick Howser Trophy and was named Baseball America Player of the Year and Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year as the nation's best collegiate player.

Benintendi became just the third player in SEC history to lead the league in home runs and batting average as he joined Rafael Palmeiro (Mississippi State, 1984) and Jeff Abbott (Kentucky, 1994) as the only players in conference history to accomplish the feat. He became the first player in school history to lead the nation in home runs (20) and became the first Division I player since 2009 to hit 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in one season.

His historic season was capped with his No. 7 overall selection by the Boston Red Sox in the 2015 MLB Draft, the highest a Razorback has been drafted since King went No. 1 overall to the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 1986 MLB Draft.

The 2015 Razorbacks finished 40-25, the sixth time in the past seven seasons that Arkansas won 40 or more games. Four players were selected in the MLB Draft, including Benintendi, and four Razorbacks earned conference honors. Benintendi was named the SEC Player of the Year while pitcher Zach Jackson was named First Team All-SEC, third baseman Bobby Wernes earned SEC All-Defensive Team honors and pitcher Keaton McKinney was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

The Razorbacks finished 2015 at No. 2 in the country in average attendance for the third straight year with 8,290 fans per game. The 12,167 fans that attended the June 6 Super Regional game against Missouri State was the largest crowd in stadium history and the third-largest Super Regional crowd in NCAA history.

In 2014, Van Horn led Arkansas to its 13th consecutive NCAA Tournament, making the program one of seven teams in the country to advance to the NCAA Tournament each of the last 13 seasons. Arkansas surged into the SEC Tournament as the No. 7 seed after winning six of its final seven regular-season games. The Razorbacks made plenty of noise in Hoover, defeating Texas A&M in the opening round, before knocking off No. 10 Ole Miss twice and advancing to the semifinals against LSU.

Arkansas then received an at-large bid to the NCAA Charlottesville Regional as the No. 2 seed and defeated Liberty and Bucknell to advance to the program's sixth-straight regional final, but the Razorbacks saw their season come to an end against Virginia, who finished as the National Runner-up in Omaha.

Arkansas continued to push its best talent to the next level following the season, as six players were taken in the 2014 MLB Draft, with five signing professional deals.

Following the 2014 season, Van Horn's coaching duties were far from finished as he became the manager of the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Leading the best collegiate players in the country against some of the top teams in the world, Van Horn and Team USA battled Chinese Taipei in a five-game series, Japan in a three-game set and made trips to The Netherlands and Cuba.

The squad finished with an overall record of 18-8-2 and captured the Haarlem-Honkbal Week Championship in The Netherlands after defeating Japan, 6-3, in the title game. It was the second time Van Horn donned the Stars and Stripes in his coaching career, as he served as an assistant coach on the Collegiate National Team in the summer of 2011.

Arkansas finished the 2013 season with a 39-22 record and an 18-11 mark in SEC play. The Hogs' 18 wins in league play were the most since 2010, and Arkansas won seven of 10 conference series for the first time since the 2004 season. The Razorbacks reached the regional final of the NCAA Manhattan Regional.

After dropping the opening game to Bryant, Arkansas bounced back with victories over Wichita State and Bryant before falling to host school Kansas State in the regional championship. Following the season, Arkansas set a school record with 11 players taken in the 2013 MLB Draft. The 11 players drafted also was the most in the country, and 10 of those Razorback draftees went on to sign professional contracts.

For the third time in his Arkansas tenure, Van Horn guided the Hogs to Omaha and the College World Series in 2012. Arkansas used a dominant pitching staff, timely hitting and strong defense to win the Houston Regional and Waco Super Regional to advance to the seventh College World Series in program history. The Razorbacks won their first two games of the College World Series and finished in a tie for third, equaling, what was at the time, the second-best finish to a season in school history.

Arkansas finished the season with a 46-22 record, which, at the time, was the most wins for Arkansas under Van Horn and the sixth-highest single-season win total in school history. The Hogs also won 40 games for the fourth straight season and for the 18th time in program history. Arkansas finished the season ranked in the top six in all four of the major college baseball polls, including a No. 3 national ranking in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, NCBWA poll and Collegiate Baseball poll.

Arkansas had a knack for winning the close games in 2012. The Razorbacks played 32 games decided by one or two runs and went 19-13 in those games. Arkansas was 14-9 in one-run games during the 2012 season and had a streak of seven straight one-run victories late in the season. Six of the Razorbacks' seven wins in the NCAA Tournament were by one run, including a pair of 1-0 victories.

Van Horn reached a milestone as the Razorback head coach in 2012 as he earned his 400th win at Arkansas during UA's NCAA Tournament run. Van Horn's 400th win was a significant one as it came against Rice in the Houston Regional. The 1-0 victory over the eighth-ranked Owls put the Razorbacks in the driver's seat of the regional, which they would eventually win with a 5-1 win over Sam Houston State.

In what many people saw as a rebuilding season in 2011, Van Horn guided the Hogs to the program's fourth SEC Western Division championship and to the NCAA Tournament. After posting a 38-20 overall record through the SEC Tournament, Arkansas was sent to the NCAA Tempe Regional hosted by Arizona State.

After dropping its opening game of the regional, Arkansas rallied to reach the regional championship game before eventually falling to the Sun Devils. Arkansas finished the season with a 40-22 record and closed the season ranked in the top 25 of every major poll with an RPI of 14.

Van Horn led Arkansas to the NCAA Tournament for the ninth consecutive year in 2010. The Razorbacks also reached the Super Regional round in back-to-back years for the first time in program history. On the strength of a 40-18 record after the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were selected to host an NCAA Regional for the fifth time in school history.

Arkansas advanced to the Super Regionals with a 7-2 victory over Washington State in a winner-take-all regional championship game. In the Super Regionals, the Razorbacks went toe-to-toe with the tournament's top seed, Arizona State, on its home field. Arkansas lost a pair of 12-inning heartbreakers to finish the season with a 43-21 overall record.

A || DAVE VAN HORN

Van Horn achieved three coaching milestones during the 2010 regular season. The Razorback skipper picked up his 300th win at Arkansas on April 9 in an 8-3 win over Mississippi State. On Feb. 27 in a 10-8 win over Troy, Van Horn earned his 600th win as a Division I head coach. He recorded career win No. 900 on May 21 in a 4-3 victory at Vanderbilt.

For the second time in his Razorback coaching career, Van Horn and his team made the ultimate postseason push and collected the program's sixth trip to Omaha for the 2009 College World Series. Rebounding from a late-season slump, Arkansas advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Baseball Tournament, before earning its eighth-consecutive berth into an NCAA Regional.

Supported by their fans, the Razorbacks hit the road and swept their way through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, besting Washington State and national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State along the way. In Omaha, Arkansas won two games and tied for a third-place national finish, equaling the 1985 team for, what was at the time, the second-best finish in program history.

The 2009 regular season had its share of highlights, too. The Hogs jumped out to an 8-0 start in SEC play for the first time in program history. The club achieved another first when Collegiate Baseball released its April 6 poll with Arkansas ranked No. 1, the first top ranking by any publication in program history.

Arizona State was also ranked No. 1 the same week in a different poll and were coming to Fayetteville for a pair of midweek games, marking the first No. 1 vs. No. 1 matchup at Baum Stadium. Arkansas solidified its top billing by knocking off the Sun Devils in both games.

In the finale against Arizona State, the Razorbacks drew a then-stadium-record 11,014 fans. That number is a significant reminder of the traditionally strong attendance figures for the Arkansas baseball team. In 2009, the Hogs finished No. 2 in national attendance with an average of 7,906 fans per game.

Hitting has been the focal point in some seasons, and pitching has dominated in others, but Van Horn knows that to accomplish the ultimate goal it takes a total team effort. In 2007, Arkansas won the program's third SEC Western Division title, when they went 18-12 in league play. The Razorbacks were 43-21 overall, hosted their fourth NCAA Regional and finished the season No. 18 in the final Collegiate Baseball rankings.

That team was one of Van Horn's best in terms of individual pitching prospects. Schmidt, a two-time first-team All-American, was taken by the San Diego Padres in the first round of the MLB Draft (No. 23 overall). Right-handers Jess Todd and Duke Welker were each taken in the second round by St. Louis and Pittsburgh, respectively. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors that year.

Schmidt's success on the mound was a continuation of his 2006 season, when the lefty was named the SEC Pitcher of the Year by the league coaches. The Razorbacks went 39-21 that season and hosted another NCAA Regional.

A hot start to the 2005 season had the Razorbacks ranked as high as No. 5 nationally as they opened the year 20-2, but a rash of bad luck sidetracked what was shaping up to be a magical year. Despite the setbacks, the Hogs came just a breath away from pulling off one of the nation's biggest upsets as it won its first two games at the NCAA Austin Regional. Arkansas would go all the way to the final game of the regional before losing to eventual national champion Texas.

Arkansas' 2004 season was one for the history books as the Razorbacks won 45 games, shared the SEC regular-season title, hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional games and made its fifth appearance at the College World Series. The following all came true despite the Razorbacks getting picked to finish last in the SEC's Western Division by the league coaches.

Along the way, Arkansas won 19 SEC games, swept a weekend series in Baton Rouge, Louisiana against No. 2 LSU and dispatched a tough Florida State team in the Super Regional in two games. The Razorbacks' sweep of LSU was the first time since 1988 that the Tigers had been swept at home by a conference opponent. The Razorbacks' accomplishments led to a top 10 finish in all four major collegiate baseball polls, including a No. 6 ranking by Baseball America.

In 2003, Van Horn's first season, Arkansas advanced to both the SEC and NCAA tournaments. The Hogs were ranked in all four major baseball polls throughout the year and picked up series wins at No. 6 South Carolina and No. 5 Auburn.

Head Coach, Nebraska (1998-2002)

Prior to taking the helm of the Arkansas program on June 21, 2002, Van Horn enjoyed a very successful five-year run as the head coach at Nebraska. In a short period of time, he built a once-fledgling program into a national powerhouse.

Before his arrival, the Cornhuskers had made just four postseason appearances in 108 years of baseball history. With their new skipper on the bench, Nebraska made four NCAA tournament appearances and two College World Series trips.

During his stint with Nebraska, Van Horn amassed a 214-92 (.699) record, won three consecutive Big 12 Tournament titles and earned Nebraska's first regular-season conference title in 51 years. He was twice named the American Baseball Coaches Association's Midwest Region Coach of the Year and posted back-to-back 50-win seasons in 2000 and 2001. In his second season at Nebraska, Van Horn guided his club to its first NCAA Tournament berth in 18 years after it won the Big 12 Tournament, its first title of any kind in nearly 50 years.

Similar to what he has done at Arkansas, Nebraska's players shined with Van Horn at the helm. The Cornhuskers had at least one player named a finalist for national player of the year honors in three seasons, including a pair of Dick Howser Award finalists. Seven players were named first-team All-Americans and 26 earned All-Big 12 accolades, including a school-record nine in 2000. The Cornhuskers also excelled in the classroom with 30 Academic All-Big 12 selections (21 first teamers) and seven players named academic all-district.

Head Coach, Northwestern State (1995-97)

Prior to his move to Nebraska, Van Horn coached three seasons at Northwestern State, his first foray as a head coach at the Division I level. He went 106-65 (.620) in three seasons, winning two Southland Conference regular-season titles (1995 and 1997). Each title also earned him Southland Coach of the Year honors.

Head Coach, Central Missouri State (1994)

Van Horn spent one season at the Division II level as the head coach at Central Missouri State in 1994. Taking the reins of the program with just six weeks of preparation before the season, the Mules got off to a quick start by winning 12 of their first 13 games and eventually put together a 21-game winning streak.

Central Missouri State won the MIAA Conference Championship and the tournament title before eventually dominating at the NCAA Championships to win the school's first national championship. In 2000, Central Missouri State honored Van Horn and his 1994 team by inducting them into the Central Missouri State Hall of Fame.

Head Coach, Texarkana Community College (1989-1993)

The storied head coaching career of Van Horn began with a humble start at Texarkana (Texas) Community College. In five seasons with the Bulldogs, Van Horn guided Texarkana to a 214-72 (.748) record. He set records for single-season wins in four of his five seasons, beginning with his first, and guided his 1992 squad to the NJCAA Texas Eastern Conference Championships.

Graduate Assistant, Arkansas (1985-88)

Prior to his first stint as a head coach, Van Horn worked with the man he replaced at Arkansas, DeBriyn, for four seasons as a graduate assistant, assisting the Razorbacks to a pair of College World Series. Arkansas was 184-71-1 (.721) while he was a graduate assistant on DeBriyn's staff, advancing to the NCAA Regionals in each of his four seasons.

Playing Career (1980-84)

Van Horn played two seasons at McLennan Community College, earning All-America, Region 5 Player of the Year, all-conference and all-region honors during his time there. A standout defensive third baseman, Van Horn was selected by the Chicago White Sox in the 10th round of the 1981 MLB Draft but opted to transfer to Arkansas instead.

In his one year with the Hogs, Van Horn earned All-Southwest Conference honors and was named SWC Newcomer of the Year and well as the team's Most Valuable Player. Following his junior year, the Atlanta Braves selected Van Horn in the 10th round of the 1982 MLB Draft. Van Horn spent three seasons in the Braves organization before returning to Fayetteville to begin his coaching career.

NATE THOMPSON

Assistant Coach • Recruiting Coordinator

3 College World Series

6 NCAA Super Regionals • 8 NCAA Regionals

Nate Thompson enters his seventh season as an assistant coach for the Arkansas baseball program in 2024.

Thompson, the Razorbacks' hitting coach and recruiting coordinator, has helped develop numerous All-Americans, All-SEC honorees and MLB draft selections since joining the program ahead of the 2018 campaign. Under Thompson's guidance, outfielder Heston Kjerstad, taken by the Baltimore Orioles with the second overall pick of the 2020 MLB Draft, became Arkansas' highest-selected draftee since infielder Jeff King was picked first overall by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986.

Highlighted by Kjerstad's selection, 20 Razorback hitters have heard their names called in the MLB draft since 2018. No program in the country has had more hitters selected in the MLB draft than Arkansas since Thompson's first year on the job.

On the field, Arkansas has displayed jaw-dropping power and prolific run-scoring ability since Thompson began working with the hitters, posting four of the top five school records for home runs in a season under his watch: 109 (2021), 106 (2022), 98 (2018) and 92 (2023). The Razorbacks recorded consecutive 100-homer seasons in 2021 (109) and 2022 (106) for the first time in school history. Arkansas also leads the SEC in runs scored (2,508) and runs batted in (2,326) since 2018.

Since Thompson joined the coaching staff, Arkansas has won a nation-leading 244 games, made three trips to the College World Series (2018, 2019, 2022) and clinched a pair of overall SEC titles (2021, 2023) as well as four SEC Western Division titles (2018, 2019, 2021, 2023). Additionally, the Razorbacks won Collegiate Baseball's national recruiting championship for the first time in program history in 2023 as their star-studded recruiting class was named the nation's best by the publication.

With Thompson as recruiting coordinator, Arkansas has signed a top-five class in three consecutive years (2021-23) and a top-10 class four years in a row (2020-23). Arkansas is the only team in the country with a top-five recruiting class, including the top-ranked class in 2023, by Collegiate Baseball in each of the last three years.

In 2023, the Razorbacks posted a 43-18 overall record, claiming their fourth overall SEC championship and their second in the last three seasons. The Hogs belted 92 home runs during the historic campaign, tying for fourth-most in a single season in program history. Arkansas also became the only SEC program, and one of just two teams in the country, to record 40 or more wins in each of the last six full seasons.

Arkansas posted a 46-21 overall record in 2022, highlighted by the program's 11th trip to the College World Series and its third trip to Omaha since Thompson joined the staff ahead of the 2018 season. At the time, the Razorbacks were the only team in the country with at least 45 wins in each of the last five full seasons.

Armed with one of the most explosive lineups in the country, Thompson oversaw a Razorback offense that slugged a program-record and nation-leading 109 home runs during the historic 50-win season in 2021. Thompson and the offense helped Arkansas win its first SEC overall title since 2004 and its first outright SEC crown since 1999. The Razorbacks became only the second team since the SEC expanded to 30 games to win all 10 of their conference series.

Arkansas capped its regular-season SEC championship with the program's first SEC Tournament championship, becoming only the third SEC team since league play expanded in 2012 to win both championships in the same season.

Six Razorbacks swatted 10 or more homers during the 2021 campaign, led by infielder Robert Moore's team-high 16 blasts. With Thompson's guidance, Moore became the first Razorback in program history to earn Freshman All-America status in multiple seasons. The switch-hitter, who was eligible as a sophomore due to the shortened 2020 season, was named a freshman All-American by Baseball America in 2021 after earning the distinction from Collegiate Baseball in 2020.

All-American outfielder Christian Franklin, who was selected by the Chicago Cubs in the fourth round of the 2021 MLB Draft, chipped in 13 home runs and 54 RBI, helping Arkansas top the SEC in five offensive categories: on-base percentage (.387), runs scored (483), homers (109), walks (360), sacrifice flies (36).

During the pandemic-shortened 2020 season, the Arkansas bats were in a groove, racking up a .310 batting average through 16 games. The Razorbacks totaled 118 runs on 175 hits with 33 doubles and 21 homers, an increase in hits (166), doubles (32) and home runs (17) through the first 16 games of 2019.

Thompson had arguably the best hitter in collegiate baseball in 2020 in Kjerstad, who led the team in seven offensive categories while also leading the SEC in hits (30), total bases (53) and slugging percentage (.791), finishing second in batting average (.448). Kjerstad, who entered entering the year as a unanimous first-team preseason All-American and a member of the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award preseason watch list, was recognized as the SEC's best hitter by D1Baseball following the shortened season.

In 2019, Thompson's hitters racked up a .298/.489/.393 line at the plate over 66 games. The Razorbacks ranked No. 17 in the nation in scoring, averaging 7.4 runs per game, and totaled 491 runs scored, good for ninth in the NCAA. The Hogs also ranked in the top 10 in four other offensive categories: hits (679, No. 7), doubles (142, No. 6), homers (88, No. 7) and slugging (.489, No. 10).

Six of Thompson's hitters landed on All-SEC teams, with Trevor Ezell, Casey Martin, Dominic Fletcher, Kjerstad and Goodheart all earning second-team accolades. Franklin took home freshman All-SEC honors, and Jack Kenley was recognized by D1Baseball as a third-team All-America honoree.

The Razorback bats helped propel Arkansas to its second consecutive share of the SEC West Division behind a 20-10 conference record. The Hogs earned the No. 5 national seed for their postseason run. For the second season in a row under Thompson, Arkansas' season culminated in Omaha with the program's 10th overall trip to the College World Series.

Thompson's first year with the Razorbacks in 2018 was nothing short of extraordinary as he guided one of the best lineups in the nation to a national runner-up finish at the College World Series. Led by a pair of freshman All-Americans in Kjerstad and Martin, Arkansas hit .296, its best for a season since 2010, and hit a then-school record 98 home runs. Five different Hogs hit at least 10 long balls during the season.

As a team, Arkansas ranked in the top 25 in the country in sacrifice hits (42, No. 2), home runs (98, No. 3), hits (695, No. 4), runs scored (482, No. 8), walks (324, No. 12), slugging percentage (.475, No. 13), batting average (.296, No. 23) and runs per game (7.0, No. 23). The runs, RBI and walks were Arkansas' best since 2000. In conference play, the Hogs topped the SEC in batting average (.302), on-base percentage (.380), slugging (.486), hits (310), home runs (45), total bases (499) and sacrifice flies (19).

As for Martin and Kjerstad, the duo combined for a .339 batting average, 27 home runs and 107 RBI, leading all freshman duos in the SEC. Martin paced the Razorbacks with a .345 batting average, while Kjerstad led the team in home runs (14) and RBI (58). Those home runs also led all freshmen in the SEC. Fletcher also turned in a strong sophomore season under Thompson's tutelage, recording a .288 batting average with 10 home runs and 49 RBI.

Fletcher went on to play for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team during the summer of 2018. Fletcher is one of five Razorback hitters to don the Red, White and Blue since Thompson arrived in Fayetteville. Kjerstad, Martin and Casey Opitz suited up for the squad in 2019, while Moore played for the team in 2021.

Thompson arrived at Arkansas after three seasons at Missouri State as hitting coach and recruiting coordinator. In 2017, his final season at MSU, Thompson helped the program reach the NCAA Super Regionals and win a Missouri Valley Conference championship after the Bears' offense hit .274 as a team with 80 home runs. With Thompson on staff, Missouri State hit .270 or better in each of his three seasons and averaged just under seven runs per game.

In his three years in Springfield, Thompson helped the Bears average a slash line of .287/.391/.453, breaking the school record for walks in 2015 (317) and again in 2017 (351). Thompson was also a key reason for the emergence of All-American Jake Burger, who was taken No. 11 overall by the Chicago White Sox in the 2017 MLB Draft.

Burger, the first player in Missouri State history to be selected in the first round of the MLB draft, led the Bears offensively as a junior during the 2017 season, hitting .328 with 23 home runs, 65 RBI and a .648 slugging percentage. Burger was named a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and Golden Spikes Award.

Burger finished his career at MSU with 47 home runs and 241 hits, 11th most in the school's history. In 2017, he was named a first-team All-American for the third consecutive season, becoming only the second player in MSU history to do so.

Jeremy Eierman, another pupil of Thompson, put together his own All-American season in 2017, being named a first-team All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings after hitting .313 with 23 homers and a team-leading 68 RBI. Eierman was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the supplemental second round of the 2018 MLB Draft.

In 2016, the Bears blossomed at the plate under the tutelage of Thompson with an MVC-best .299 team batting mark, their top single-season average since 2009. MSU led the MVC in nearly every major offensive statistical category, including slugging (.500), on-base percentage (.391), runs scored (440), RBI (412), doubles (121), triples (26), home runs (80) and total bases (1027). The Bears' 80 long balls ranked as the sixth-best total in club history, led by NCAA Division I home run leader Spencer Johnson (24), who earned All-America honors with Burger (21) after ranking No. 1 and No. 2 in the nation, respectively.

During the 2015 season, Thompson's first at Missouri State, Burger became just the third Bear rookie, along with Mark Bailey (1980) and Bob Blakley (1974), to be selected for an All-America team (other than an all-freshman squad). Three different position players signed professional contracts at the conclusion of Thompson's first season with the Bears, including MVC Defensive Player of the Year Joey Hawkins and All-MVC performer Dylan Becker, who signed with the St. Louis Cardinals, as well as first-team all-conference pick Tate Matheny, who was selected by the Boston Red Sox in the fourth round of the MLB draft.

Johnson joined the group last year, signing with the Houston Astros after being selected in the 16th round of the 2016 MLB Draft. With Burger being drafted in 2017 and Eierman in 2018, Thompson has been responsible for the three highest draft picks in Missouri State history. Eierman and Burger, as well as Matheny, also each played for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team during their time at MSU.

Additionally, Thompson's first full year with MSU produced one of the top recruiting classes in program history. Anchored by a home-grown crop of standouts that included nine players rated among the top 31 high school recruits in the state of Missouri by either Perfect Game USA or Prep Baseball Report, the Bears' 2015 recruiting class was ranked No. 35 in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. In 2016, Thompson was named the best recruiter in the MVC by D1Baseball.

Prior to joining the Missouri State staff in July 2014, Thompson served as Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College's primary hitting coach from 2011 through the 2014 season, helping lead the Blue Dragons to a pair of KJCCC West regular-season titles and two of the top five win totals in program history. Hutchinson broke 17 team or individual school records during a 43-17 campaign that saw it rank among the NJCAA's top 20 nationally in 14 offensive statistical categories.

In 2014, Thompson helped mentor Matt Jones, a 25th round selection of the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 2014 MLB Draft, Jayhawk West Most Valuable Player Jake Schleggenbach and national pitcher of the year Kyle Simonds, who became the first player in Hutchinson history to earn first-team All-America recognition.

Over his four-year stint as an assistant coach at Hutchinson, Thompson helped the program average 35 wins per season while posting a .613 winning percentage and producing 23 All-Jayhawk West Division selections, eight of which went on to earn NJCAA All-Region VI honors. In 2012, the Blue Dragons logged a 40-17 ledger, including a Jayhawk West Division crown with a 23-9 conference mark. Led by All-American Tanner Lubach, seven Blue Dragons earned all-conference honors, with four players signing to continue their careers at the Division I level.

Thompson spent three seasons at Nebraska as the Cornhuskers' volunteer assistant coach prior to his arrival at Hutchinson. In that capacity, he instructed the Husker outfielders and assisted with the infield group.

He played key roles in the development of 2008 All-Big 12 performers and MLB draftees Jake Opitz (12th round, Chicago Cubs) and Mitch Abeita (19th round, New York Yankees), as well as future MLB player Cody Asche, who helped Nebraska log an impressive 41-16-1 campaign and earn the right to host an NCAA Regional in Lincoln, Neb.

Thompson also served as the director of Nebraska's summer baseball camps, overseeing program development and personnel while assisting with the instruction and skill development phases of the camps.

Following the completion of his own collegiate playing career at Dallas Baptist, Thompson began his coaching career as a student assistant coach with the Patriots. During the 2006 season, he aided a DBU staff that included current Patriots head coach Dan Heefner, working with the outfielders and assisting with hitting instruction and the implementation of the team's strength and conditioning program. The Patriots recorded a .329 team batting mark en route to a 33-23 season and saw a school-record seven players taken in the MLB Draft.

From there, Thompson moved into a graduate assistant role at Fort Hays State, where he served as the Tigers' primary hitting and outfield coach during the 2007 campaign. A pair of Tigers earned ABCA All-Central Region recognition under Thompson's tutelage as Fort Hays State finished with a 33-20 overall record.

Additionally, Thompson gained experience during the summer of 2007 as an assistant coach with the Mat-Su Miners of the Alaska Baseball League, where he was nominated for the league's assistant of the year honor.

A two-year letterwinner in the Dallas Baptist outfield, Thompson helped the Patriots claim the 2004 NCCAA national championship after turning in a standout two-year career at Garden City Community College. Thompson was a key figure on the Busters' 2003 Jayhawk West Division championship team, earning NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-America honors.

A native of Goodland, Kan., Thompson graduated cum laude with his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Dallas Baptist in 2006 and earned a master's degree in sports administration at Fort Hays State in 2008. He married the former Anna Schardt in 2009, and the couple has three daughters, Nevaeh, Natalie and Nora.

Matt Hobbs enters his sixth season as an assistant coach for the Arkansas baseball program in 2024.

Hobbs, the Razorbacks' pitching coach, has helped develop numerous All-Americans and All-SEC honorees as well as 19 MLB draft selections since joining Arkansas as an assistant coach ahead of the 2019 campaign. Under Hobbs' tutelage, pitcher Kevin Kopps emerged as the best college baseball player in the country in 2021, winning both the Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy.

Since Hobbs joined the coaching staff, Arkansas has made two trips to the College World Series (2019, 2022) and clinched a pair of overall SEC titles (2021, 2023) as well as three SEC Western Division titles (2019, 2021, 2023). Additionally, the Razorbacks won Collegiate Baseball's national recruiting championship for the first time in program history in 2023 as Arkansas' star-studded recruiting class was named the nation's best by the publication.

Since 2019, Arkansas has had more pitchers selected in the MLB draft (19) than any program in the country, including a nation-leading 14 pitchers taken in the first 10 rounds. Razorback pitchers who blossomed under Hobbs' guidance before, ultimately, hearing their names called in the MLB draft include:

2019 MLB Draft (5)

Isaiah Campbell – Seattle Mariners, CB-B round (76)
Matt Cronin – Washington Nationals, 4th round (123)
Jacob Kostyshock – Colorado Rockies, 8th round (249)
Cody Scroggins – Boston Red Sox, 9th round (287)
Zack Plunkett – Los Angeles Dodgers, 20th round (611)

2021 MLB Draft (6)

Kevin Kopps – San Diego Padres, 3rd round (99)
Ryan Costeu – Los Angeles Angels, 7th round (201)
Patrick Wicklander – Tampa Bay Rays, 8th round (251)
Lael Lockhart – Los Angeles Dodgers, 9th round (282)
Caden Monke – Kansas City Royals, 14th round (409)
Elijah Trest – Colorado Rockies, 19th round (560)

2022 MLB Draft (5)

Peyton Pallette – Chicago White Sox, 2nd round (62)
Evan Taylor – Miami Marlins, 9th round (262)
Connor Noland – Chicago Cubs, 9th round (263)
Zebulon Vermillion – New York Mets, 10th round (299)
Mark Adamiak – Oakland Athletics, 15th round (454)

2023 MLB Draft (3)

Jaxon Wiggins – Chicago Cubs, 2nd-C round (68)
Hunter Hollan – Cincinnati Reds, 3rd round (74)
Cody Adcock – Cincinnati Reds, 13th round (378)

Since Hobbs began working with the Razorback pitching staff, Arkansas has struck out opposing hitters at a historic clip, posting three of the top five school records for strikeouts in a season under his watch: 674 (2022), 657 (2021) and 615 (2019).

In 2023, the Razorbacks posted a 43-18 overall record, claiming their fourth overall SEC championship and their second in the last three seasons. Arkansas became the only SEC program, and one of just two teams in the country along with Southern Miss, to record 40 or more wins in each of the last six full seasons. Three of Hobbs' pitchers – Wiggins (2nd-C round, Chicago Cubs), Hollan (3rd round, Cincinnati Reds) and Adcock (13th round, Cincinnati Reds) – were selected in the 2023 MLB Draft.

In 2022, the Razorback pitching staff racked up 674 strikeouts to set a new single-season school record for the second consecutive year. Hobbs' pitching staff, which included a pair of Freshman All-Americans in Hagen Smith and Brady Tygart as well as five MLB draftees in Pallette, Taylor, Noland, Vermillion and Adamiak, helped power the Hogs to a 46-21 overall record, culminating with the program's 11th trip to the College World Series, and Hobbs' second as a member of the coaching staff.

In 2021, Hobbs and his pitching staff helped Arkansas win its first SEC overall title since 2004 and its first outright SEC crown since 1999. The Razorbacks became only the second team since the SEC expanded to 30 games to win all 10 of their conference series. Arkansas capped its regular-season SEC championship with the program's first SEC Tournament championship, becoming only the third SEC team since league play expanded in 2012 to win both the regular season and tournament championship in the same season.

With a stable of arms that featured Kopps, who was selected by the San Diego Padres in the third round of the 2021 MLB Draft, and five more MLB draftees, Hobbs oversaw a Razorback pitching staff that totaled 657 strikeouts, the previous school record, during the historic 50-win season in 2021.

Kopps, who became the second Arkansas player in school history to win the Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy, posted a 12-1 record with 11 saves, logging a school-record 0.90 ERA during the year. The right-hander struck out 131, the third-most total in program history, and walked just 18 while allowing only nine earned runs all season.

Kopps was named SEC Pitcher of the Year and won nearly every single major award in the sport, including national player of the year praise from D1Baseball, Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and the College Baseball Foundation.

Hobbs also oversaw Wicklander's emergence as the Razorbacks' Friday night starter during the 2021 season. The left-hander made 13 starts and posted a 7-1 record with a 2.09 ERA, the second-lowest earned run average among all SEC pitchers. Wicklander, who earned All-SEC Second Team honors at the year's end, was drafted by the Tampa Bay Rays in the eighth round of the 2021 MLB Draft.

Kopps and Wicklander were two of six Razorback pitchers selected in the 2021 MLB Draft, as Costeu (8th round, Los Angeles Angels), Lockhart (10th round, Los Angeles Dodgers), Monke (14th round, Kansas City Royals) and Trest (19th round, Colorado Rockies) also heard their names called. Arkansas' six pitchers taken, including four in the draft's first 10 rounds, was the most the program has ever had selected in the first 20 rounds of the MLB draft.

For Arkansas, it was the second time in program history that it had four pitchers selected in the draft's first 10 rounds. The Razorbacks also achieved the feat in 2019, Hobbs' first year as pitching coach, when Campbell (CB-B, Seattle Mariners), Cronin (4th round, Washington Nationals), Kostyshock (8th round, Colorado Rockies) and Scroggins (9th round, Boston Red Sox) all went in the first 10 rounds.

Despite the pandemic-shortened 2020 season, Hobbs' pitchers were impressive over the first 16 games of the year. The Hogs put together a 3.68 ERA and an 11-5 record with three saves and one shutout. Arkansas racked up 143 strikeouts in 142.0 innings as seven pitchers tallied double-digit strikeout totals, with right-hander Connor Noland leading the way with 19.

Noland went 2-0 with a 2.00 ERA over three starts to lead Arkansas' starting pitching. Pitcher Zebulon Vermillion was electric out of the bullpen, striking out 12 with only four hits allowed, all singles, in five outings, winning one game and picking up a save in another.

Hobbs helped craft the Razorback pitching staff into one of the top groups in the country in his first year on the job in 2019, led by Campbell. The Razorbacks' Friday night starter, Campbell put together a 12-1 season and recorded a 2.13 ERA over 118.1 innings, striking out 125 in 18 starts. He was named a consensus All-American for his performance in 2019, earning a first-team nod from the ABCA and second-team honors from five other outlets.

Arkansas' pitching staff was bookended by Cronin, who played the role of closer and posted 12 saves and a 1-0 record in 25 appearances. He recorded 42 strikeouts over 29.0 innings pitched for a team-best 1.86 ERA. Opponents hit just .165 against Cronin as he racked up five All-America awards, including second-team honors from Baseball America.

A majority of Arkansas' game two and three starts came from a pair of freshmen in Noland and Wicklander, as the duo combined to start 34 games and appear in 42. The two totaled nine wins and 145 strikeouts, putting together a pair of low 4.00 ERAs as Noland picked up freshman All-America honors from Perfect Game.

The Razorback arms helped propel Arkansas to its second consecutive share of the SEC West behind a 20-10 conference record. The Hogs earned a No. 5 national seed for their postseason run, which featured a clean sweep in the NCAA Fayetteville Regionals and two wins over SEC foe Ole Miss in the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional. Arkansas' season culminated with a trip to Omaha, the program's 10th overall trip to the College World Series.

Four of Arkansas' pitchers were taken in the 2019 MLB Draft, with Campbell getting selected in the second round by the Mariners. Cronin, Kostyshock and Scroggins were all drafted in the first 10 rounds and signed to pro squads following the 2019 season.

Before Arkansas, Hobbs spent four years at Wake Forest. During his time in Winston-Salem, 12 Demon Deacon pitchers were drafted or signed free-agent contracts in four years (2014-18), including four each following the 2016 and 2017 seasons and three after the 2018 season. In each of his first three years in Winston-Salem, the Demon Deacons improved in ERA (5.73 to 5.24 to 4.11), strikeouts (364 to 435 to a program-record 559), walks per nine (5.03 to 4.35 to 3.83) and opponent batting average (.281 to .280 to .247).

The Demon Deacons also significantly improved their win totals the first three years under Hobbs, from 27 to 35 to 43, winning the 2017 NCAA Winston-Salem Regional and falling a game short of the College World Series at the Gainesville Super Regional. The pitching staff excelled down the stretch in 2017, recording a 3.81 ERA, .240 opponent batting average and more than a strikeout per inning against the likes of Florida, West Virginia and UMBC in the NCAA Tournament.

In Hobbs' final season at Wake Forest, the 2018 Demon Deacon pitching staff set a new program record for strikeouts per nine innings, fanning more than one batter per inning.

Hobbs oversaw Parker Dunshee's development as he became a two-time all-conference starting pitcher, seventh-round draft pick in 2017 and Wake Forest's all-time strikeout record holder. In addition, Donnie Sellers and Connor Johnstone were drafted for the first time in their careers in 2017 under Hobbs, and Griffin Roberts heard his name called in the following year's draft. Fellow pitchers Rayne Supple and Chris Farish also started their pro careers in 2018.

Before arriving at Wake Forest, Hobbs spent four years as the pitching coach at Missouri, his alma mater. During his four years in Columbia, Hobbs had seven of his pitchers drafted in three seasons and guided four players to all-conference honors.

In 2013, Missouri's first year in the SEC, Hobbs helped mentor Rob Zastryzny, who was selected by the Chicago Cubs in the second round of that year's MLB draft. Hobbs also helped guide pitcher Keaton Steele to All-SEC First Team honors as Steele was the only player in the nation to lead his team in wins and saves.

Hobbs' pitching staff in 2013, despite being made up of eight newcomers, ranked among the best in recent Mizzou history with a 3.87 ERA in 50 games. That was the best team mark by a Tiger team since 2006. His three regular starters all had ERAs 3.80 or lower and his staff allowed just 152 walks, which was third in the league.

In 2012, he mentored starter Zastryzny to honorable mention All-Big 12 honors and closer Dusty Ross to a spot on the All-Big 12 Second Team. In 2011, three of his pitchers were selected in the MLB draft, and he coached All-Big 12 Freshman Team honoree Zastryzny and All-Big 12 honorable mention Phil McCormick.

Prior to joining the Mizzou coaching staff ahead of the 2011 campaign, Hobbs spent the 2010 season as the pitching coach at San Francisco, where his staff ranked fourth in the West Coast Conference in ERA and was second in the league in fewest walks per nine innings. Most notably, Hobbs helped convert Kyle Zimmer from a third baseman into a pitcher. Hobbs' tutelage and foresight paid off for Zimmer, who was drafted fifth overall by the Kansas City Royals in the 2012 MLB Draft.

Before his one season at San Francisco, Hobbs spent three years as the associate head coach, pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at UC San Diego. The Tritons made a trip to the Division II College World Series in 2009. They finished that year ranked No. 3 after claiming the school's first ever Regional Championship.

Under Hobbs, UC San Diego's staff allowed the fewest number of walks per nine innings in D-II and ranked 12th nationally in ERA (3.73) in 2009. Future MLB pitcher Guido Knudson earned NCBWA All-America honorable mention praise that season.

Prior to his stint at UC San Diego, Hobbs spent two seasons as the pitching coach at Santa Barbara City College. In 2006, Hobbs' staff allowed the fewest walks in the Western State Conference, while his 2005 squad led the WSC with a 2.27 ERA.

During the summers, Hobbs was the pitching coach for Foresters Baseball, which won the National Baseball Congress World Series in 2006 after a runner-up finish in 2005. Hobbs also served one season as an assistant coach at Chapman, where he worked with the pitchers and catchers.

Over the course of Hobbs' coaching career, more than 40 of his pitchers have either been drafted or signed pro contracts. Since joining the Razorback coaching staff ahead of the 2019 season, Hobbs has worked with 14 pitchers drafted in the first 10 rounds, including five top-100 overall selections in Campbell, Kopps, Pallette, Wiggins and Hollan. Hobbs has also helped develop numerous big leaguers over his college coaching career, including Dylan Axelrod (Santa Barbara City College), Campbell (Arkansas), Knudson (UC San Diego), Matt Stites (Missouri), Zastryzny (Missouri) and Zimmer (San Francisco).

Hobbs pitched at Missouri from 1999-2002, where he won 13 games and struck out 125 batters. Hobbs was drafted twice, first by the San Diego Padres in 2001 and then by the Kansas City Royals in 2002.

Hobbs and his wife, Marta, have two daughters, Addison and Taylor, and a son, Will.

Bobby Wernes, who played two years for the Razorbacks under head coach Dave Van Horn, enters his fourth season as an assistant coach for the Arkansas baseball program in 2024.

Wernes, who served as the program's volunteer assistant coach for three seasons before he was promoted to a full-time role on the coaching staff, assists as a hitting and infield coach while also working with the Razorbacks' catchers. Since he joined the coaching staff, Arkansas has made one trip to the College World Series (2022) and clinched a pair of overall SEC titles (2021, 2023) as well as a pair of SEC Western Division titles (2021, 2023).

Additionally, with Wernes on staff, Arkansas won Collegiate Baseball's national recruiting championship for the first time in program history in 2023 as their star-studded recruiting class was named the nation's best by the publication.

The Razorbacks posted a 43-18 overall record in 2023, claiming their fourth overall SEC championship and their second in the last three seasons. Arkansas belted 92 home runs during the historic campaign, tying for fourth-most in a season in program history. Arkansas also became the only SEC program, and one of just two teams in the country, to record 40 or more wins in each of the last six full seasons.

In 2022, Arkansas posted a 46-21 overall record, highlighted by the program's 11th trip to the College World Series and its third trip to Omaha since the 2018 season. At the time, the Razorbacks were the only team in the country with at least 45 wins in each of the last five full seasons.

In 2021, Wernes' first season on staff, Arkansas won its first SEC overall title since 2004 and its first outright SEC crown since 1999. The Razorbacks became only the second team since the SEC expanded to 30 games to win all 10 of their conference series. Arkansas capped its regular-season SEC championship with the program's first SEC Tournament championship, becoming only the third SEC team since league play expanded in 2012 to win both the regular season and tournament championship in the same season.

Wernes joined the Arkansas staff after spending two years coaching in the Philadelphia Phillies' organization with the Gulf Coast League (GCL) Phillies West. In 2019, he served as the team's hitting coach, helping the club to a 33-15 record and a first-place finish in the North Division. Under his guidance, the Phillies West squad led the GCL in team batting average and was second among the 18 teams in slugging percentage, averaging 5.13 runs per game.

Wernes was promoted to manager of the Phillies West in 2020 and was slated to be one of the youngest managers in professional baseball before the minor league season was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Before beginning his coaching career, Wernes played for the Razorbacks from 2014-15 and was drafted by the Houston Astros in the 30th round of the 2015 MLB Draft. He played four years of pro ball, including two years in the Astros organization and two years in the Colorado Rockies' system, reaching Double-A Hartford in 2018.

Wernes appeared in 121 games over his two years as a Razorback, racking up 103 hits, 45 RBI and 68 runs scored. He started 55 of 56 games in 2014 as a sophomore and registered 10 multi-hit games, including a double, 18 RBI and 18 runs scored.

He played in all 65 games for the Razorbacks in 2015, hitting .279 with seven doubles, five homers and a team-high six triples. That season, Wernes was named to the SEC All-Defensive Team and played an integral part in the Arkansas' eighth overall College World Series berth.

CLAY GOODWIN

Director of Baseball Operations
17th Season • Arkansas (2005)

Clay Goodwin enters his 17th season as director of operations for the Arkansas baseball program in 2024.

As the director of operations, Goodwin coordinates many of the behind-the-scenes aspects of the Razorback baseball program as he works in conjunction with the Arkansas coaching staff.

Prior to his appointment as the director of baseball operations, Goodwin spent the 2006 season as the Razorbacks' fifth-year student assistant coach. He assisted the Arkansas coaching staff with practices, day-to-day administrative duties and game day activities. He served as a graduate manager for Arkansas during the 2007 season.

Goodwin was an outstanding player for the Razorbacks over four seasons, and his name is littered throughout the Arkansas record book. An excellent defensive third baseman, he was also known to have an effective bat and finished his career with a .297 average, 49 doubles, 12 home runs and 127 RBI.

HUNTER BELL

Director of Strength & Conditioning
2nd Season • Arkansas-Monticello (2018)

Hunter Bell, a former collegiate baseball player and University of Arkansas at Monticello graduate, enters his second season as the director of strength and conditioning for the Arkansas baseball program in 2024.

Bell comes to Arkansas from Elon, where he was as an assistant sports performance coach. He oversaw strength and conditioning for the baseball and women's lacrosse programs while also assisting with football. In his one season with the Phoenix, Bell helped in the development of a pair of 2022 MLB Draft selections - outfielder Alex Iadisernia (St. Louis Cardinals, 7th round) and pitcher Trevor Kirk (New York Yankees, 20th round).

Prior to Elon, Bell worked at Chattanooga and oversaw strength and conditioning for men's wrestling, women's soccer, track and field, and tennis while assisting with football. Before that, he was a graduate assistant at Missouri State, where he was responsible for performance training of the track and field, swim and dive, and baseball programs. As the lead strength and conditioning assistant for Missouri State baseball, Bell helped in the development of pitcher Hayden Juenger, who was selected by the Toronto Blue Jays in the sixth round of the 2021 MLB Draft.

Before Missouri State, he interned at TCU, working with the Horned Frogs football, men's basketball, and baseball programs. Bell coached alongside head baseball strength and conditioning coach Zach Dechant to direct student-athlete workouts.

The Vicksburg, Miss., native got his start in sports performance as an intern at SEC institutions Mississippi State (2018) and Ole Miss (2019-20), where he worked directly with football. Bell also gained experience in the private sector during that time, working at Pro Sports Performance (2019) in Brookhaven, Miss.

Bell, who is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) as well as CPR/AED certified, earned his associate degree from Hinds Community College (2014-16), where he played two seasons of baseball for the Bulldogs. He received his bachelor's degree in exercise science from UAM (2016-18), where he played two seasons of baseball for the Boll Weevils.

His 2011 season was arguably his best on the mound as a Razorback, posting a 10-2 record over 19 appearances and 12 starts with three saves. He totaled 79 strikeouts, allowing 15 earned runs over 85.1 frames of work for a 1.58 ERA, the best among starting pitchers at Arkansas that year.

|| BAUM-WALKER STADIUM

When discussing the best college baseball facilities in the country, Baum-Walker Stadium is consistently among one of the first places mentioned. With room for more than 11,000 spectators, an impeccable playing surface and amenities that rival most minor league ballparks, it is the crown jewel of the collegiate ranks. Of course, the physical properties of Baum-Walker Stadium are only a portion of the baseball experience with the remainder in the form of fans that flock to the corner of Razorback Road and 15th Street to watch the Hogs take on all comers.

Officially named Baum Stadium at George Cole Field at its dedication on May 3, 1996, the facility derives its name from primary backers as well as from the history of Razorback baseball. Arkansas' facility prior to Baum Stadium was George Cole Field, and the new ballpark has preserved the tradition with its current name. In 2018, the Willard and Pat Walker Charitable Foundation pledged $5 million in support of the recently opened J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center. As a result of the commitment and pledge, Baum Stadium's name was changed to Baum-Walker Stadium.

In 1998, Baum-Walker Stadium received a special honor, when it was named the nation's No. 1 facility in Baseball America's poll of best college facilities. Five years later it took second in the same poll, cementing its legacy as one of the best facilities in the nation. Since Baum-Walker Stadium's construction, Arkansas officials have received numerous solicitations by coaches and administrators from across the country for blueprints and tours of the Razorbacks' home ballpark in an attempt to capture some of its charm. Even though Baum-Walker Stadium has been replicated to some degree, no other place in the country has the atmosphere that the venue brings to college baseball, which is why it has played host to 10 NCAA Regionals (1999, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2021, 2023) and five NCAA Super Regionals (2004, 2015, 2018, 2019, 2021).

Baum-Walker Stadium was one of the nation's best facilities when it was constructed, but since then it has undergone four renovations, making it the envy of visiting teams. The first upgrade came prior to the 2003 season, when the hitting and pitching cages were enclosed to ensure a place for Razorback players to practice year-round. A total of 2,600 chair back seats also were added to the park, 1,300 of which reside on each foul line.

Baum-Walker Stadium's second renovation came a year later as 12 luxury boxes, coaches' offices, a new scoreboard and natural grass completely changed the feel of the park. A state-of-the-art scoreboard added full video, complete with a message center and an analog clock was added to the right-center field gap, which stood 45-feet high and 76-feet wide. The original turf field at Baum-Walker Stadium was torn out, and rye grass was grown for the 2004 campaign but replaced by a hybrid Bermuda in 2005. A portion of the upgrades were made possible by contributions from the Willard and Pat Walker Charitable Foundation, Bob & Marilyn Bogle, the Pagnozzi Charities, John Tyson and Stan Ley.

The next renovation came prior to the 2007 season as 20 luxury boxes were built, 1,000 chair back seats were added, restrooms were constructed and the Hog Pen and picnic area were expanded. A new ticket office, field lights and wall pads were added as well. The final set of upgrades to the park brought capacity to 10,737 seats with 8,237 of those coming from chair backs and 34 from luxury boxes.

New LED ribbon boards were added in 2013, and the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center opened in the fall of 2014, providing Arkansas with the finest collegiate indoor facility in the country. The facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full-size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

In 2016, the university's partnership with South Dakota-based Daktronics produced the largest video board ever installed at an on-campus college baseball facility in the country. The massive 25-foot by 71-foot LED video board enhances an already memorable experience at Baum Stadium by providing 1,775 square feet of digital space for live high-definition video, instant replays, up-to-the-minute statistics, and game information, graphics and animations.

In 2018, the U of A Board of Trustees approved the construction of a baseball performance center at Baum-Walker Stadium. The J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center, which sits beyond the right field foul pole, is approximately 49,000 square feet and features coaches offices and upgraded amenities for student-athletes, including an improved and expanded locker room, team meeting room, training rooms, lounge areas and a nutrition center. The $27 million building, funded entirely by athletic revenues, gifts and bond proceeds from a bond issue, also includes a state-of-the-art strength and conditioning center, indoor practice area and pitching development center.

In 2004, Baum-Walker Stadium served as host to its second NCAA Regional and first NCAA Super Regional, drawing the largest total attendance in the nation for both events. The series-clinching win over Florida State drew 10,027 fans to Baum Stadium, eclipsing the previous night's record of 9,338, set less than 24 hours earlier. In all, a combined 58,138 attended the NCAA Regional and Super Regional during the 2004 season.

Arkansas' 2004 attendance numbers were no fluke as fans continued to pour into the ballpark. The 2005 and 2006 crowds continued to set records for both paid and actual attendance. While the NCAA and SEC recognize tickets sold as their method of ranking schools, Arkansas keeps both actual patrons as well as paid attendance figures and has seen steady increases in both areas.

The combination of the upgrades prior to the 2007 season as well as a top-10 baseball team produced then-record attendance numbers as Arkansas smashed its school record for the fourth straight year. The Hogs became the first team in NCAA history to average more than 8,000 tickets sold per game (8,069). Arkansas also set a then-school record for actual attendance with 198,218 fans (6,007 per game) passing through the gates of Baum-Walker Stadium.

The attendance figures drawn to Baum-Walker Stadium allowed Arkansas to host its third NCAA Regional in four years in 2007 and its fourth since 1999. Razorback fan support did not flounder as the Regional was the best attended of all 16 sites, averaging 6,452 fans over six games.

In April 2009, Baum-Walker Stadium played host to its first No. 1 versus No. 1 battle when the Razorbacks took on Arizona State. In game two of the midweek series, 11,014 fans were in attendance and 11,434 tickets sold. Both numbers were then-facility records, topping the previous mark of 10,581 fans who watched Arkansas defeat LSU in 2007. The two-game series against the Sun Devils brought 17,300 fans through the turnstiles, a midweek record, and the 19,776 tickets sold were also a midweek series high mark.

Razorback fans have continued to set the bar high when it comes to postseason attendance. Baum-Walker Stadium has been fortunate to have been a host for the 2015 NCAA Super Regional, the 2017 NCAA Regional, the 2018, 2019 and 2021 NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals and, most recently, the 2023 NCAA Regionals.

On June 6, 2015, a school-record of 12,167 fans watched game two of the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional between Arkansas and Missouri State. The day before, 11,869 fans came through the turnstiles to watch game one, which still ranks second on the all-time actual crowds list. The Razorbacks completed the trifecta in game three of that series when Baum-Walker Stadium recorded its third straight day of 11,500-plus fans inside as they witnessed the Hogs lock up their eighth trip to the College World Series.

Three years later, Arkansas nearly matched that fan support in the 2018 Fayetteville Super Regional against SEC-foe South Carolina. More than 11,000 fans entered the grounds to see the Razorbacks earn their ninth trip to Omaha in program history. In total for the entire 2018 postseason, 89,852 fans packed Baum-Walker Stadium throughout the two rounds, more than any other postseason site.

The Razorback faithful accomplished it again in 2019 after hosting nine games during the Regionals and Super Regionals during the NCAA Tournament, welcoming more fans than any other ballpark in the nation. Arkansas saw 93,868 fans pack the stadium during the two postseason rounds that showcased the Hogs advancing to their 10th College World Series in program history. The total attendance was 4,000 more than the previous year's Regionals and Super Regionals' combined attendance figure.

Baum-Walker Stadium was one of eight ballparks in 2019 to host both postseason rounds and the only one to surpass 90,000 in total attendance. In the games featuring the Razorbacks, the average attendance was 10,845 - including 11,276 during Super Regionals. All three Super Regional crowds exceeded 11,000 and are some of the largest postseason paid attendances in stadium history.

Including the postseason, total attendance at Baum-Walker Stadium in 2019 climbed to 348,775, the third-highest total in the nation. On average, Arkansas accumulated 8,719 fans per game, fourth highest in the country.

Arkansas led the country in both average and total attendance in 2022. Baum-Walker Stadium drew a record 10,376 fans per game, good for a then-record 363,153 total fans over 35 home dates. To punctuate the historic year, 34,796 Razorback fans turned out for the three-game home series against Ole Miss, setting the stadium's three-game series attendance record.

During the Hogs' 2023 campaign, yet another stadium record was set as Baum-Walker drew a program-high 370,940 total fans over 38 home dates. It was the 20th straight year that Arkansas ranked in the top five in the nation in attendance.

Baum-Walker Stadium is the culmination of a vision that was possible only through the dedication of former Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn, former University of Arkansas athletics director Frank Broyles and contributions by the families of Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum. While the efforts of DeBriyn and Broyles were instrumental in maintaining a state-of-the-art home for Arkansas baseball since the original George Cole Field opened in 1975, it was the generosity of the Baum and Walker families that allowed Arkansas to abandon plans to renovate its former facility and replace it with a new standard in college baseball venues.

The support of the George Cole family has been an integral part of the program's growth since the former Razorback athlete, coach and athletic director donned the Cardinal and White many years ago.

"Without the support of the Charlie Baum, Willard Walker and George Cole families, this wouldn't have been possible," DeBriyn said when Baum Stadium opened. "It's an incredible facility, and there is not one like it anywhere in the country. There is no way to describe the excitement our players and coaches have when they take the field."

Representatives of all three families attended the groundbreaking ceremony on Oct. 12, 1994. 18 months later, Arkansas' Matt Carnes delivered Baum Stadium's first pitch to Auburn's Russell Whittenburg, completing the dream. The Razorbacks defeated the Auburn Tigers, 9-2, in the stadium's inaugural contest.

Before Baum-Walker Stadium, George Cole Field, named for the late Razorback shortstop and athletics director, served as Arkansas' home field from 1975 until 1996. A native of Bauxite, Ark., Cole served as athletics director from July 1, 1970, until his retirement on July 1, 1973. A former All-SWC quarterback for the Razorback football team, Cole scored a then-school-record 85 points as a senior in 1927.

Cole began his administrative career at Arkansas as a football line coach in 1936 and became an assistant athletics director under the legendary John Barnhill in 1957.

When it opened in 1975, George Cole Field enabled the Razorbacks to leave the field at the Washington County Fairgrounds and move into an on-campus facility for the first time. With a capacity of 3,000, George Cole Field was located just north of John McDonnell Field. Setting the trend for Arkansas having the finest college baseball park in the nation, George Cole Field was one of the few with artificial turf.

Donations from former Razorbacks Tim Lollar, Johnny Ray and Kevin McReynolds and their agent, Tom Selakovich, provided for the installation of lights at George Cole Field in 1985. On March 22 of that season, the Hogs defeated Southwest Conference rival Texas, 5-4, in the first night baseball game on the Arkansas campus.

Later that season, George Cole Field played host to the Southwest Conference Tournament for the first time. Arkansas defeated Texas, 10-6, in the championship game to win its first conference tournament title. The SWC tournament came to Fayetteville again in 1988.

When the Razorbacks entered the Southeastern Conference in 1992, University of Arkansas officials recognized the need to improve the school's baseball facility. While plans originally called for the improvement of George Cole Field, generous donations from the Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families, along with former Razorback Tom Pagnozzi, enabled the Razorbacks to scrap the renovation plans and start from scratch with an entirely new state-of-the-art facility.

During its 21 seasons, George Cole Field was home to a number of future major-leaguers, including Pagnozzi, Ray, McReynolds, Lollar, Les Lancaster and Jeff King.

Although the original George Cole Field played host to its last game on March 31, 1995, the spirit endures in the official name of the Razorbacks' current facility: Baum-Walker Stadium at George Cole Field.

FOWLER FAMILY TRAINING CENTER

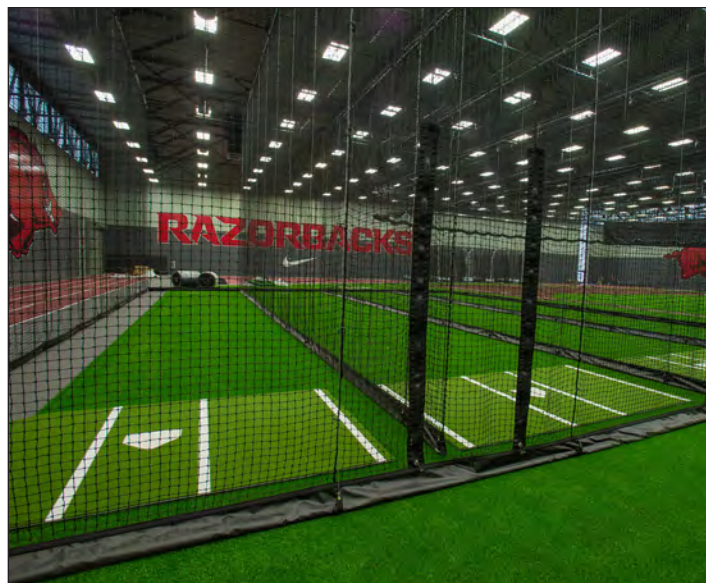

The facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full-size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

Thanks in part to the generous $2.5 million gift provided by the Wallace and Jama Fowler family, the University of Arkansas completed a brand new worldclass indoor training facility for baseball and track in the summer of 2015.

Dedicated on Sept. 20, 2014, as the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center, the facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

The facility includes four batting cages with a drop down and raise up netting system that allows for baseball training and available surface space. The practice infield is suitable for live hitting with nets ensuring safe activity and observation outside the infield space and protective measures toward the facility structure.

The Fowler Family's gift marked substantial progress toward meeting the fundraising goal for the project. The fundraising goal for the facility was funded by a combination of capital gifts, athletic revenues and proceeds from a bond issue. The total project cost was $9.1 million.

HUNT FAMILY DEVELOPMENT CENTER

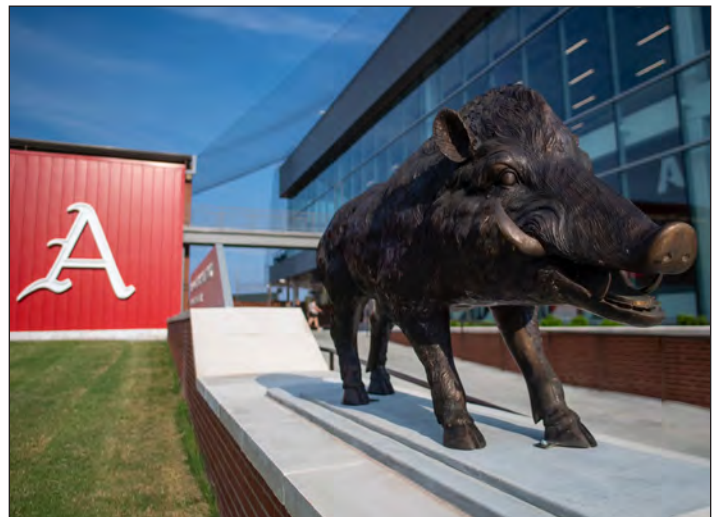

The one-of-a-kind facility features an expanded locker room, team meeting space, strength & conditioning center, training room, nutrition center and a state-of-the-art player development lab.

The J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center is a 49,000-square foot baseball performance facility, providing student-athletes with an improved and expanded locker room, team meeting room, strength and conditioning center, training room, nutrition center, pitching and development lab and an in-venue batting tunnel.

The one-of-a-kind facility sits in the right-field corner of Baum-Walker Stadium, connecting it with the west concourse and providing new premium seating areas for games. It also includes a tunnel to connect the facility with the first-base dugout. The Norm DeBrynn Champions Lobby features numerous historical displays and interactive content showcasing the history of Razorback baseball.

The Van Horn Hog, named in honor of legendary Arkansas Razorback head baseball coach Dave Van Horn, is symbolic of the indomitable fighting spirit of the wild Razorback. The Razorback baseball program is nationally recognized as a skilled and spirited group possessing a fiery determination to prevail. The Van Horn Hog, donated by the Waldrip family, is dedicated to the legions of fans across Arkansas and the nation who share that same unwavering, fighting Razorback spirit.

The $27 million J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center was funded entirely by athletic revenues, gifts and bond proceeds from a bond issue. No university funds, state funds or student fees were required to complete the project. The facility was approved for construction in June 2019 by the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees.

PROGRAM HISTORY

Few schools in America enjoy as rich a history as that of the Arkansas Razorback baseball program. With 11 College World Series appearances - including national runner-up finishes in 1979 and 2018 - and 34 NCAA postseason appearances to its credit, the University of Arkansas has long been considered one of the nation's elite programs.

Entering their 102nd season of competition in 2024, the Razorbacks fielded their first team in 1897. Arkansas played for 24 years before seeing its team discontinued from 1930-46. Hugo Bezdek, E.T. Pickering, T.T. McConnell, Claude Watts, Norman Coyle and Francis Schmidt served as coaches during the early days of the program. All but Watts and Coyle also served as head football coaches at the university.

The Razorbacks got back in the baseball business again in 1947 with Deke Brackett serving the first of three seasons as head coach. It was in 1950, with Razorback athletic trainer Bill Ferrell taking the reins, that modern day interest in the sport ignited for the first time. Though compiling only a 139-149 record during his 16-year tenure, the foundation was laid for what was to come.

Wayne Robbins took over for the popular Ferrell in 1966 and coached four seasons, going 50-51. His successor was a fiery young coach from Wisconsin who would eventually build the program into one of national prominence.

Norm DeBriyn was hired by Arkansas Athletics Director George Cole in 1970 and charged with making the Razorbacks competitive on a conference and national level. Arkansas baseball had not been a baseball-playing member of a league since dropping out of Southwest Conference play in 1926. One of DeBriyn's first tasks was to resume a SWC schedule, a feat which was accomplished in time for the 1974 season. His teams proved competitive in one of the nation's toughest baseball leagues and Arkansas would end up qualifying for 14 of the 15 SWC Tournaments held during the Razorbacks' membership in the league.

The Razorbacks became competitive on a larger scale as well under DeBriyn. Arkansas participated in its first NCAA postseason in 1973, DeBriyn's fourth season, and made its first trip to the NCAA College World Series in 1979 - his 10th season at the helm. That trip to Omaha in 1979 saw the Razorbacks finish as national runner-up to Cal State Fullerton.

In his final season as coach in 2002, DeBriyn guided Arkansas to an NCAA Super Regional after winning the Wichita Regional with a perfect 3-0 mark. The Razorbacks came within two runs of advancing to their fifth NCAA College World Series, losing the Super Regional two games to one to host Clemson.

A new chapter in Arkansas baseball history began in 2003 when former Razorback player and graduate assistant coach Dave Van Horn was named head coach after DeBriyn retired. Since taking over at his alma mater, Van Horn has continued to grow the Razorback program with seven trips to the College World Series (2004, 2009, 2012, 2015, 2018, 2019 and 2022), 19 NCAA Tournament berths and 10 SEC championships over his 21 seasons at the helm.

Head coach Norm DeBriyn led the Razorbacks to their first SEC title in 1999. In his career, he guided Arkansas to three conference titles combined in the SWC and SEC.

With the installation of lights at George Cole Field, Arkansas was able to host its first night game and the Southwest Conference Tournament in 1985.

Facilities have played an important role in the history of Razorback baseball. Upon DeBriyn's arrival, the Razorbacks were playing games at the run-down and disheveled Washington County Fairgrounds field barely fit for pasture land. By 1975, Arkansas had moved into George Cole Field, one of the few college ballparks in the country with an artificial playing surface. The park gave the program immediate respectability and Arkansas would advance five times to NCAA postseason play and twice to the College World Series in its first decade in the park. Lights were added in 1985 with the help of former standouts Kevin McReynolds, Johnny Ray and Tim Lollar, a move that again advanced the program to another level.

George Cole Field was the site of the Razorback baseball program's coming of age. The Razorbacks would go 567-142-2 at the facility for a winning percentage of .799. It was the site of the school's first league tournament championship, in 1985, and home to a parade of all-conference and All-America players. McReynolds, Ray, Lollar and Tom Pagnozzi - some of the first Razorbacks to make a significant impact in Major League Baseball - were just a few of many DeBriyn pupils who honed their skills at George Cole Field and went on to excel in the majors.

Although he retired following the 2002 season, the magic continued with DeBriyn's subtle influence on the lives of Charlie Baum and Willard and Pat Walker families, key contributors to perhaps the crowning achievement of DeBriyn's tenure - Baum Stadium at George Cole Field. The 8,237-seat stadium, which can accommodate a crowd of 10,737, is unparalleled in the country in form and function and moved the program to an even higher level of achievement.

Designed by the nationally acclaimed firm HOK, designers of such jewels as Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Coors Field and Progressive Field, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field played host to its first game on April 13, 1996, as a crowd of 3,328 saw the Razorbacks defeat Auburn in a doubleheader sweep.

Named the best college baseball facility in the nation by Baseball America in 1998 and 2018, the stadium has ignited the interest of Razorback fans throughout the region and helped Arkansas lead the nation in tickets sold in 2007 with 8,069 per game and set a then-NCAA record in the process. Since 2004, the Hogs' second season under Van Horn, Arkansas has ranked in the top five nationally in average attendance each year.

Another crown jewel of Razorback baseball is the Fowler Family Baseball & Track Training Center. The 52,000-square foot climate-controlled indoor facility opened in the fall of 2014 and includes a full-size practice infield that is suitable for live hitting, fielding and base running. The facility also includes four batting cages and protective netting around the facility to ensure safe activity and observation while taking protective measures toward the facility structure.

The J.B. & Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center, which opened prior to the 2022 season, is the latest addition to Baum-Walker Stadium. The 49,000-square foot baseball performance facility provides student-athletes with an improved and expanded locker room, team meeting room, strength and conditioning center, training room, nutrition center, pitching and development lab and an in-venue batting tunnel.

Arkansas baseball is not just about those who have been able to play the game for a living. The Razorbacks have produced 99 all-conference selections (all since 1976 when Bill Montgomery was named All-Southwest Conference), 33 All-America picks (Lollar was the first in 1978), 26 freshman All-America selections, 59 conference all-tournament selections, six conference titles (1989, 1990, 1999, 2004, 2021, 2023), two conference tournament championships and 11 College World Series appearances.

Since joining the SEC in 1992, Arkansas has placed 57 players on All-SEC lists. Throughout the years, 65 former Razorbacks have played in the big leagues and nine were major league first-round draft picks in McReynolds (1981), Jeff King (1986), David Walling (1999), Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010), Ryne Stanek (2013), Andrew Benintendi (2015) and Heston Kjerstad (2020).

Six former Hogs have won a World Series: Dick Hughes (St. Louis Cardinals, 1967), Eric Hinske (Boston Red Sox, 2007/New York Yankees, 2009), Dallas Keuchel (Houston Astros, 2017), Benintendi (Red Sox, 2018), Drew Smyly (Atlanta Braves, 2021) and Stanek (Astros, 2022).

Many former Razorbacks have given something back to the program that helped propel them to the professional ranks, but none so much as the all-star catcher Tom Pagnozzi. The annual Tom Pagnozzi Invitational Golf Tournament and surrounding events raise thousands of dollars each year for the Arkansas baseball program.

Memorable moments of Arkansas baseball vary with the observer. Arkansas' first NCAA postseason appearance in 1973 at Arlington Stadium in Arlington, Texas, will long be considered a watershed moment for DeBriyn's program. Though the Razorbacks lost two straight, it was a signal the program had arrived. Just six years later, the Razorbacks raced through the NCAA East Regional in Tallahassee, Florida, in four games to advance to the College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska, for the first time.

Three more wins in the then-true double elimination event put Arkansas in the championship game against Cal State Fullerton. Fullerton, playing with one loss, won the first championship game, 13-10, to force a winner-take-all rematch. Fullerton won that one 2-1, sending the disappointed Razorbacks home with the national runner-up trophy.

A third-place finish at the 1985 CWS also saw the Razorbacks go through Tallahassee and started a five-year stretch in which Arkansas advanced to Omaha three times, each time on an odd year. Fifth-place finishes in 1987 and 1989 were outstanding achievements for those teams.

Arkansas played host to its first Southwest Conference Tournament in 1985, winning three straight games at George Cole Field with an opening win over Baylor and back-to-back victories over rival Texas. It was another example of facilities playing a role in the program's success - only the addition of lights that season enabled the school to snare the tournament host honor from traditional sites Texas and Texas A&M.

Memorable moments are hard to narrow to such a small space but would include some hard-to-forget home runs and pitching performances. Ralph Kraus ushered in the school's first night game in classic style with a home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to defeat Texas before thousands in 1985.

There have been 13 no-hitters in school history, the most recent by the combination of Dominic Taccolini, Matt Cronin, and Josh Alberius in the 2017 SEC Tournament. They blanked Auburn to join former Razorbacks Rich Erwin (1976), David Rhodes (1977), Scott Glanz (1982), Tim Deitz (1983), Fred Faust (1984), Steve Parker (1986), Dennis Fletcher-Tim Sherrill-Tim Peters (1987), Brian Cook-Brian Dennison (1991), Todd Abbott (1994), Richie Nye (1996), Scott Roehl (2001), and Nick Schmidt-Brian McLelland, Devin Collis (2006) as no-hit specialists.

Another Nye helped the Razorbacks make history again on the final day of the 1999 regular season. Rodney Nye homered in each of his first three trips to the plate to lead Arkansas its first SEC Western Division and overall titles.

Baum-Walker Stadium has already seen its share of memorable games in its short lifespan, such as Arkansas' 11-run rally to beat South Carolina, 17-16, in 1998 and a 16-0 win over Eastern Illinois in which David Walling fanned 16 batters to help give Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career victory.

In 1999, the Razorbacks took their home field advantage to a new level, going 14-1 in home SEC games and ending the season with 13 consecutive conference victories at the facility. The solid play in home league games helped the Razorbacks earn division and overall league titles and brought an NCAA regional to the UA campus for the first time in school history.

In 2004, Arkansas duplicated the feat again earning a share of the SEC crown and topping the SEC West. Picked last in the division to begin the season, head coach Dave Van Horn guided this gritty bunch of Razorbacks to their second league title since joining the SEC. For their efforts, Arkansas earned a coveted national seed in the NCAA Tournament draw and hosted its second regional in school history.

The Razorbacks hosted, at the time, the largest attended NCAA Regional as 38,773 fans packed Baum-Walker Stadium for the three-day event. Arkansas didn't disappoint, although it took a historic comeback to send the home crowd away happy. Down to its last out in an elimination game against Wichita State, Arkansas got a grand slam from junior catcher Brady Toops to complete an improbable 11-9 comeback win against Wichita State. Arkansas held off the Shockers, 4-3, in the regional final to secure the school's first-ever NCAA Super Regional.

Former Razorbacks Ronn Reynolds, Kevin McReynolds, Tim Lollar and Johnny Ray with long-time Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn (middle). All four #ProHogs played in the Major Leagues for at least six years and each played in at least 100 games or more during their careers.

Arkansas clinched its eighth trip to the College World Series in 2015 after defeating Missouri State in game three of the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional. Arkansas won 21 of its final 29 games that year to reach its 14th-straight NCAA Tournament. In game two of the Super Regional, fans set a single-game Baum Stadium attendance record (12,167) that still stands today.

The following weekend, Arkansas dominated No. 12 Florida State in a two-game sweep of the Seminoles televised nationally by ESPN. Razorback fans set a new NCAA record for super regional attendance at an on-campus venue drawing 9,338 on Friday and 10,027 on Saturday. With the 4-2 win in game two, Arkansas clinched its fifth College World Series berth.

During the 2009 regular season, Arkansas earned its first No. 1 ranking and defeated Arizona State in front of a then-Baum-Walker record 11,014 fans in the facility's first matchup between top-ranked teams; the Sun Devils were also ranked No. 1 at the time in other national polls.

That same year, the Hogs swept through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, upsetting national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State, respectively, to earn the program's sixth trip to Omaha.

On college baseball's grandest stage at historic Rosenblatt Stadium, Arkansas split its first two games of the 2009 College World Series, besting Cal State Fullerton and then losing to LSU. The Razorbacks found themselves one out away from elimination against Virginia before Brett Eibner lifted a two-run shot to left field to tie the game. Arkansas went on to win the instant classic, 4-3, in 12 innings, and finished the series in third place.

The Razorbacks reached the College World Series for the third time under Van Horn in 2012 as Arkansas put together a memorable postseason run that saw them down old SWC rivals Rice and Baylor on their home fields. Arkansas opened its tournament run in Houston as it defeated Sam Houston State twice and downed eighth-ranked Rice in a 1-0 shutout.

The next week, Arkansas returned to the state of Texas and faced No. 4 national seed Baylor. After dropping the opener of the Super Regional, Arkansas responded by winning the next two games to punch its ticket to Omaha.

A scoreless game until the top of the 10th inning, Arkansas broke through on Jake Wise's RBI single, scoring Brian Anderson. Randall Fant, Nolan Sanburn, Brandon Moore, Trent Daniel and Colby Suggs combined to shut down the high-powered Baylor offense and send Arkansas to Omaha.

In the College World Series, the Hogs won their first two games, defeating Kent State, 8-1, in the opener before downing South Carolina, 2-1, to snap the Gamecocks' 22-game NCAA postseason win streak. Arkansas would finish tied for third in the CWS after eventual-runner up South Carolina defeated the Razorbacks twice.

The 2015 season saw one of the greatest individual performance ever by an Arkansas baseball player as outfielder Andrew Benintendi became the first Razorback to win the Golden Spikes Award, given to the national player of the year. The sophomore wowed the crowds at Baum Stadium as he became just the third player in SEC history to lead the league in home runs (20) and batting average (.376).

With the help of Benintendi, Arkansas had an improbable run culminating in one of the most memorable seasons in Razorback history. Entering April at 14-14, Arkansas went on a tear, going 21-8 in its final 29 games and earned a two-seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Arkansas headed to the Stillwater Regional and cruised through, winning all three games they played. The Hogs won the Regional and won the right to host a Super Regional the following week against national-seed Missouri State.

The Razorbacks split the first two games of the Fayetteville Super Regional setting up a winner-take-all third game. Behind a raucous and stadium-record crowd of 12,167 fans, first team All-SEC closer Zach Jackson took the mound with a one run lead and 11 outs standing between the Razorbacks and Omaha. Jackson retired 11 straight, including a series-ending strikeout that sent Baum Stadium into hysteria and the Razorbacks to the College World Series for the third time in the past seven years.

Arkansas continued its trend of making it to Omaha every three seasons as it returned to the College World Series in 2018, the fifth time under head coach Dave Van Horn and ninth time overall. In turn, the Razorbacks made its deepest run since 1979.

The road to its ninth College World Series was not easy as Arkansas' regular-season schedule was, arguably, the toughest in the nation. The Hogs faced four of the seven other teams (Mississippi State, Florida, Texas, Texas Tech) that made the CWS field and went on to win 35 games at home, never losing a series at Baum Stadium in the process.

For the third time in its history, Arkansas was awarded a national seed (No. 5) for the NCAA Tournament ultimately giving it home field advantage all the way to the College World Series. The Hogs won three-straight games in the regional and two of three games in the Super Regional against SEC foe, South Carolina to earn the coveted spot in Omaha. The fans responded with the opportunity of having postseason baseball at Baum-Walker Stadium, making it the highest attended regional and super regional for 2018.

In Omaha, the Razorbacks won their first three games of the series, defeating Texas, Texas Tech and Florida to earn its first trip to the CWS final since 1979. Arkansas won game one of the final against Oregon State, 4-1, utilizing another stellar pitching performance from junior Blaine Knight, who ended his Razorback career setting the Arkansas single-season record for wins with a perfect 14-0 record. His closer, Matt Cronin, also set the Arkansas single-season saves record (14) in the same game.

Arkansas came within one strike of winning its first national championship in game two against Oregon State, but the Beavers scored three runs in the ninth inning and claimed game three the next day to give Arkansas its second national runner-up trophy in school history.

For the first time in program history, the Razorbacks secured a trip to the College World Series in back-to-back seasons, reaching Omaha again in 2019. The Hogs rode a 41-17 overall record and a 20-10 mark in SEC play to a West Division title and a No. 5 national seed, ensuring the Road to Omaha continued to run through Fayetteville.

In Regional action, Arkansas made light work of Central Connecticut State (11-5) and TCU twice (3-1 & 6-0) to move on to Super Regional play, where a familiar foe awaited them. Arkansas got the privilege of facing Ole Miss for the sixth, seventh & eighth times in 2019, taking games one & three by scores of 11-2 & 14-1 to earn the program's 10th trip to the College World Series.

Despite a shortened season in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Hogs still found ways to make it a memorable one. Arkansas started out 7-0 with sweeps over Eastern Illinois and Gonzaga, including an 11-strikeout performance from Connor Noland on Opening Day. In the series finale against South Alabama, Heston Kjerstad hit the program's first walk-off home run exactly seven years to the day on March 8, 2013. The final game of the season was also a milestone as a wild 10-9 victory over Grand Canyon gave Dave Van Horn his 700th win as head coach of the Razorbacks.

Arkansas reached new heights during the 2021 campaign, putting together a historic 50-win year that culminated with both an SEC regular season and conference tournament title. The Razorbacks became one of two SEC teams (Vanderbilt, 2013) in history to win all of their conference series in a season. Arkansas set a single-season school records for home runs (109) during the year and was led by pitcher Kevin Kopps, who turned in one of the most legendary seasons in college baseball history. Kopps went 12-1 with 11 saves, 131 strikeouts and a nation-leading 0.90 ERA in 89.2 innings of work to become Arkansas' second Golden Spikes Award winner.

In 2021, the Razorbacks became the fifth team to win both the SEC regular season title and the SEC Tournament title since the league went to the current tournament format in 1996.

The Hogs posted a 46-21 overall record in 2022, highlighted by the program's 11th trip to the College World Series and its third in the last four postseason. Dave Van Horn's Razorbacks continued to make history on the field, setting new single-season school records in both strikeouts (674) and fielding percentage (.982).

With another 40-win season under its belt in 2023, Arkansas extended its streak as one of only two teams in the country, along with Southern Miss, to record at least 40 wins in each of the last six full seasons – 2017 (45), 2018 (48), 2019 (46), 2021 (50), 2022 (46), 2023 (43). Entering 2024, no team in the country has recorded more wins over the last seven seasons than the Hogs' 289 total victories since 2017.

A rich history with legendary players, coaches and games make Arkansas baseball a unique and treasured program. With Baum-Walker Stadium as a backdrop for the Razorbacks' continued competition in the toughest league in the nation, Arkansas baseball promises to bring fans many more great moments for many years to come.

The Razorbacks won a thrilling game three in the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional to punch their ticket to the 2015 College World Series - the school's eighth appearance in Omaha.

|| ALL-TIME RESULTS

In one of the wildest and most memorable games in Razorback history, Arkansas was on the brink of elimination in the 2017 NCAA Fayetteville Regional against Missouri State. After enduring a 9 p.m. start and multiple rain delays, the Hogs and Bears played into the wee hours of the morning, finishing well after 3 a.m. Jared Gates' go-ahead home run in the eighth inning was enough to force a regional-deciding game, which was played later that day.

Success Happens Here

Student success is a high priority at the University of Arkansas. Students take advantage of resources, programs and support – from the first day of classes through graduation – at the Cordia Harrington Center for Excellence (CORD), which opened in 2022. The CORD houses academic initiatives programs, such as tutoring, the writing studio, supplemental instruction and peer academic coaching and is located in the heart of campus.

A massive building now under construction at the corner of Dickson Street and Duncan Avenue will allow researchers from widely diverse fields to work together to stimulate innovation and discovery.

INITIAL GRAND CHALLENGE: Integrative Health

A nearly $2 MILLION transfer from NIH to the ADAPTIVE NEURAL SYSTEMS GROUP at I³R is powering work to design and develop technology to offset the effects of limb amputation, orthopedic injury and disease, and neurological conditions and neurodegenerative diseases.

CHARLES F. ROBINSON | CHANCELLOR

Charles F. Robinson is the seventh chancellor of the University of Arkansas. He leads the university's land-grant mission to provide opportunity and transform lives through education, research and service.

Robinson was appointed chancellor on Nov. 16, 2022, after serving as interim chancellor since Aug. 16, 2021. In that time as interim, he championed a new emphasis on the university's land-grant mission and set the priorities of supporting student success, augmenting the institution's research enterprise, and becoming an employer of choice.

Specifically during that period, he added more than $1 million in scholarships for Arkansas students and avoided increasing in-state tuition and fees by more than .8%, while providing salary increases for employees. He led the effort to establish the historic memo of understanding with the University of Arkansas Division of Agriculture to define and deepen collaboration with the Division. On the research front, development began on the to-be-constructed Multi-User Silicone Carbide Research and Fabrication Facility, the nation's first open national semiconductor fabrication facility, which will allow for low-volume prototyping of integrated circuits and devices - and training of this highly specialized technical workforce. Other notable accomplishments during this time include a successful remote and flexible work pilot, the launch of a classification and compensation project as well as a comprehensive study of infrastructure and support for the research enterprise. Additionally, he appointed a Strategic Enrollment Management Steering Committee to design future growth, size and distribution of the student body to prepare for higher education's "enrollment cliff," a period when the number of college-available students is predicted to drop precipitously in Arkansas and nationally.

Robinson has served the University of Arkansas for more than 23 years, beginning as an assistant professor of history in 1999. Teaching and mentoring students has always been a priority, even as he was promoted to positions of increasing leadership and responsibility, including serving as provost and executive vice chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs. In this role, he enhanced communication and coordination of the university's academic and student affairs endeavors in order to support a more holistic approach to student success on campus.

He has also served the university as vice provost for diversity and vice chancellor for Student Affairs, and as director of the African and African American Studies Program.

Under his leadership, the university constructed Adohi Hall, a $79 million campus project that is the only residence hall in the United States to use cross-laminated timber, a construction process that reduces environmental impact. Robinson also oversaw a $22 million expansion of Pat Walker Health Center and led strategic planning for the university's Student Success Center, a 71,000 square foot facility focused on increasing access to services on campus for all students. Each innovation has helped to better position the university to serve students during a time of record enrollment.

Throughout his tenure at the University of Arkansas, Robinson has consistently led institutional progress in diversity recruitment, student success, and retention and graduation efforts, while articulating new academic initiatives and development goals to better serve campus and meet the needs of students.

As vice chancellor for Student Affairs, Robinson pioneered a major restructuring of the Division of Student Affairs, better positioning the unit to focus on student success. Robinson led the main capital campaign initiative for Advance Arkansas - a $10 million scholarship effort for first-generation, low-income Arkansans. Additionally, he fostered the creation of the first summer bridge program at the university and established a new line of residential student scholarships aimed at supporting Arkansas students living in campus housing.

As vice provost for diversity, Robinson established several programs focused on making the U of A more accessible for Arkansas students. These include the College Access Initiative, a college readiness outreach program serving underrepresented students and under-resourced schools statewide, as well as the ACT Academy, designed to help students prepare for college entrance exams and academic success. Robinson also led the creation of Razorback Bridge Outreach, a student recruitment, scholarship and retention program reaching underrepresented students.

Robinson's research and teaching focus on southern history and race relations, African American studies, sexuality in history and Civil Rights, among other topics. He has earned many awards for his teaching, including the Fulbright College Master Teacher Award, Arkansas Student Alumni Board Teacher of the Year, and an induction into the university's Teaching Academy.

Robinson holds a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Houston, a master's degree in history from Rice University and a doctorate in history from the University of Houston.

He has authored numerous books, including Remembrances in Black: Personal Perspectives of the African American Experience at the University of Arkansas, Dangerous Liaisons: Sex and Love in the Segregated South and Forsaking All Others: A True Story of Interracial Sex and Revenge in the 1880s South.

Known as an engaged and approachable leader on campus, Robinson is also heavily involved with multiple regional, state and national organizations including recent or current roles on the Arkansas Research Alliance Board of Directors, AETN Foundation Board, Northwest Arkansas Council Advisory Committee (presiding co-chair), ARVEST Bank Board of Directors, National Merit Scholarship Corporation Board of Directors, Center for First-generation Student Success Advisory Board and the Association of Public Land grant Universities Council of Presidents. In fall 2023, College Board honored him with its Exceptional Service to Education Award.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

The Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas serve as the institution's governing body. The board is comprised of 10 trustees representing each of the state's four congressional districts. The president is the chief executive officer of the University of Arkansas System and reports to the Board of Trustees. Each campus has a chancellor as its chief executive officer, reporting directly to the president.

Guided by the program's mission of building Champions and Razorbacks for Life, vice chancellor and director of athletics Hunter Yurachek has helped lead the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics to unprecedented success on and off the field.

Since being introduced as the vice chancellor and director of athletics on Dec. 4, 2017, Yurachek has worked tirelessly to foster athletics success in all 19 sports, restore the tradition of a storied program and enhance the student-athlete experience for 465 student-athletes. Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Razorback student-athletes, coaches, administrators, Razorback Foundation members and fans, results are being realized on and off the field.

Now in his sixth full year at the University of Arkansas, Yurachek has firmly positioned the Razorbacks as one of the nation's elite intercollegiate athletics programs. Arkansas is in midst of the most successful era of its program with three-consecutive top-15 Directors' Cup finishes, after earning only one top-15 finish in the first 24 years of the competition.

Arkansas has more than made its mark in the most competitive conference in the nation, winning 31 Southeastern Conference Championships in the past five years, including 23 conference titles in the past three years alone. Both marks lead all SEC programs and the Razorbacks' 31 titles is more than five other league programs combined in that same timeframe.

People throughout the nation are taking notice of the historic run in Fayetteville. Yurachek was selected as a 2021-22 Football Bowl Subdivision Cushman & Wakefield Athletics Director of the Year by his peers. He was also a finalist for the Sports Business Journal 2022 Athletics Director of the Year.

Yurachek's leadership is also making a difference within Arkansas, the SEC and throughout intercollegiate athletics. In 2020, Arkansas Governor Asa Hutchinson named Yurachek to the Governor's Economic Recovery Task Force, to help guide state reopening in the wake of COVID-19. Yurachek was honored as the Arkansas Press Association Headliner of the Year in 2021 and was named the inaugural Celebrate Arkansas Influencer of the Year in 2022.

He is a member of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee, a role he has held since 2021, after previously serving on the Football Competition Committee. Yurachek is the only conference athletics director currently serving on the SEC Executive Committee, which approves the annual operating budget and oversees all financial and fiscal affairs of the conference.

In 2022-23, Arkansas recorded a third consecutive top-15 finish (No. 13). Arkansas finished first among programs with 19 or fewer sports. The Razorbacks captured two NCAA Championships (MITK, WITK), earned 13 top-25 finishes and six top-10 national finishes. 17 of 19 programs were ranked in the top 25, with eight breaking into the top 10. The Hogs won a bowl game for the second straight year, advanced to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament's Sweet Sixteen for the third consecutive year and won the program's first match in the NCAA Volleyball Tournament in 18 years. Arkansas won five SEC Championships (BSB, MITK, WITK, MOTK, WOTK).

Academically, Razorback student-athletes combined for a 3.20 cumulative GPA and 166 student-athletes earned academic personal bests. A total of 72 Razorback student-athletes graduated and another 12 earned graduate certificates from the University of Arkansas.

In the 2021-22 academic year, Arkansas recorded the most successful year in the program's history, finishing seventh in the Learfield Directors' Cup. The Razorbacks finished first among programs with 19 or fewer sports, second among SEC schools and earned only its second top-10 Directors' Cup finish. Arkansas earned a total of nine top-10 NCAA finishes and 12 top-20 NCAA finishes. The Razorbacks won eight Southeastern Conference championships (men's and women's cross country, soccer, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's outdoor track and field, softball regular season, softball tournament) and won a New Year's Day bowl game in football for the first time since 2000. In addition, the Razorbacks advanced to the College World Series, the Elite Eight in men's basketball and women's soccer, and the NCAA Golf Championships in both men's and women's golf.

In the classroom, Razorback student-athletes earned a program-record 3.27 GPA and a total of 97 Razorback student-athletes earned their degrees and added their names to Senior Walk in the 2021-22 academic year.

In 2020-21, Razorback Athletics earned a then program-best eighth place finish in the 2020-21 Learfield Directors' Cup. Arkansas' previous best finish, prior to 2020-21, was 14th in the competition that tracks the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletics programs.

The Razorbacks won another NCAA title (Women's Indoor Track & Field), earned eight Top-10 NCAA finishes and a remarkable 10 Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championships, including SEC triple crown sweeps in both men's and women's cross country & track and field, a second-straight soccer regular season crown, the program's first softball regular season title and a baseball regular season and tournament championship. Arkansas' championship total led the league and doubled the next closest SEC program.

Meanwhile, Razorback student-athletes combined for a 3.25 GPA and 104 student-athletes graduated from the University of Arkansas. A multi-million-dollar renovation of the Randal Tyson Track Center was completed, while brand new facilities, including the $27 million J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center and the $15 million Frank O'Mara Track and Field High Performance Center were constructed.

Even in an abbreviated 2019-20 competition schedule, Razorback Athletics built an impressive resume, including winning its first NCAA championship in women's cross country and its first SEC title in soccer. In addition, the Razorbacks earned SEC championships in women's cross country and men's and women's indoor track and field. Razorback student-athletes followed suit in the classroom, earning a 3.24 cumulative GPA with 107 student-athletes adding their names to Senior Walk as University of Arkansas graduates.

Razorback Athletics was also at the forefront of several key initiatives in 2019-20. In October, Nolan Richardson Court was dedicated at Bud Walton Arena. The Eddie Sutton Men's Basketball Practice gymnasium was created at the Basketball Performance Center.

In 2018-19, Arkansas finished No. 23 in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup, including finishing first among programs with 19 or fewer teams. Arkansas captured two NCAA team championships (women's indoor and outdoor track & field), four SEC team championships (women's cross country, women's indoor and outdoor track & field, men's golf) and four SEC team runner-up finishes (soccer, men's cross country, men's indoor track & field and women's basketball).

In addition, the Razorback Baseball team won a share of the SEC Western Division title and advanced to its second straight College World Series. A total of 14 programs were nationally ranked during 2018-19, including five in the top 10. Arkansas had four NCAA individual and 22 SEC individual champions.

Razorback student-athletes continued to achieve at a high level in the classroom, posting a cumulative GPA of 3.24. The program graduated 98% of student-athletes who exhausted their athletic eligibility.

In 2018-19, Arkansas hosted its first NCAA Men's and Women's Golf Championships at Blessings Golf Club. In addition, Arkansas was home to the 2019 SEC Indoor and Outdoor Track & Field Championships as well as both an NCAA Baseball Regional and Super Regional at Baum-Walker Stadium.

Yurachek launched several initiatives to further engage Arkansas and Razorback fans around the world. In August 2018, as part of the One Razorback campaign, the inaugural One Hog Call event was held in Fayetteville, Little Rock and around the globe. Razorback fans from more than 16 countries and 40 states participated in a simultaneous Hog Call.

Yurachek's first full year in Fayetteville saw tremendous success. Arkansas tied a program record with a No. 16 finish in the 2017-18 Learfield Sports Directors Cup, and first in the nation among schools with 19 or fewer sports.

In 2017-18, Arkansas captured four SEC championships (men's and women's cross country, women's indoor track, women's golf), including the school's first SEC crown in women's golf. The Razorbacks earned three top-five national finishes including national championship runner-up finishes at the 2018 NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships and the 2018 College World Series. Four Arkansas student-athletes earned individual national championships.

In the 2018 spring semester, Razorback student-athletes earned a record-tying 3.25 GPA and 282 student-athletes secured a spot on the department honor roll. Nearly 125 Razorback student-athletes added their name to Senior Walk as graduates of the University of Arkansas.

Yurachek came to Arkansas from the University of Houston where he served as the vice president for athletics. Prior to Houston, Yurachek served as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University, where Coastal won 29 Big South Conference championships. Yurachek was named Under Armour FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014. He has also worked at the University of Akron, the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

In Yurachek's first two years at Houston, the Cougars' sport programs eclipsed 225 points in the Learfield Directors' Cup in back-to-back years for the first time in department history, securing top-three finishes in The American Athletic Conference both years. Houston's programs combined for a league-leading five American Conference team championships and 22 American Conference individual titles.

The success was not limited to the field of play, however, as UH student-athletes placed 96 and 109 student-athletes on the Dean's List in the fall and spring semesters, respectively. Houston student-athletes combined for the highest spring GPA (2.95), highest cumulative GPA following a spring semester (2.93) and the highest average hours passed in a spring semester (14.1) in department history.

The 2016-17 year also saw the continuation of an aggressive facilities plan as construction began on the $60 million renovation of the Fertitta Center, the football indoor practice facility and a baseball player development center and clubhouse with more than $85 million of projects all privately funded.

In his first year in the role, Houston recorded its highest finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 1999-2000 and its second-highest finish in school history with 296.5 points to finish 73rd nationally. The 2015-16 academic year saw the Houston Football program capture The American Athletic Conference Championship and a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over Florida State, the Houston Men's Track & Field program win The American Indoor and Outdoor Championships and the Houston Women's Golf program claim an American Championship in only its second year with a full team. In addition, the Men's Basketball program returned to the NCAA postseason for the 29th time in program history and the Men's Golf program advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third straight year.

All of the athletic achievements occurred while UH student-athletes recorded the second-best fall GPA, 2.91, and second-best spring GPA, 2.87, in athletic department history while placing a record 88 student-athletes on the University's Dean's Honor List in the spring.

Yurachek led the Houston Athletics fundraising charge with a record amount $5.2 million in private donations to the Athletics general scholarship fund in the 2014-15 fiscal year. Focused on improving the student-athlete experience, Yurachek also led a department that unveiled the completed Guy V. Lewis Development Center for the Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs, Carolyn and Ron Yokubaitis Field at Carl Lewis International Track & Field Complex, one of the nation's largest collegiate baseball video boards, a renovated Houston Football locker room and a short game facility for the Houston Men's and Women's Golf programs.

Named by Chancellor Dr. Renu Khator as Chair for a campus-wide steering committee established to oversee the grand opening events for the $128 million TDECU Stadium, Yurachek assisted in the cultivation, solicitation and securing of a 10-year, $15 million-naming rights agreement for TDECU Stadium with the per year value ranking in the top ten nationally for collegiate venue naming rights agreements.

Yurachek was instrumental in the national search and hiring of football and men and women's basketball head coaches (Tom Herman, Kelvin Sampson, Ronald Hughey) while overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 remodeling project to the men and women's basketball locker rooms.

He served as liaison with an architectural design firm on the plans for the $25-million Guy V. Lewis Development Center as well as overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 facility enhancement to the Athletics/Alumni Center, including the addition of Cougar Cafe, a student-athlete nutrition center.

Yurachek came to Houston after serving four years as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University where he oversaw a department featuring 18 men's and women's NCAA Division I sport programs. A testament of his vision, Yurachek was named the 2014 Under Armour FCS Athletic Director of the Year in May of 2014.

Under Yurachek's leadership, the Chanticleers won a total of 29 Big South Championships (both regular season and tournament championships), made 30 NCAA appearances and finished a program-best 79th in the 2012-13 Learfield Director's Cup.

During Yurachek's time of leadership, Coastal hosted an NCAA Baseball Regional; NCAA Baseball Super Regional; NCAA Division I Football championship contests in 2010 and '13; and NCAA Men's Soccer Championship matches in 2011, '12 and '13, as well as winning a competitive bid to host the VisitMyrtleBeach.com Men's and Women's Big South Basketball Championships in 2013, 2014 and 2015, sponsored by the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce.

Coastal Carolina student-athletes posted a 3.028 grade point average (GPA) for the fall 2013 semester and saw its overall GPA rise from 3.053 to 3.108. Of the 434 student-athletes, 253 - or 58.3 percent - posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, including 28 who earned President's List (4.0 GPA for the semester) and an additional 117 who earned Dean's List recognition.

In addition, during Yurachek's tenure Coastal Carolina student-athletes earned:

- 363 All-Big South honors
- 31 All-Big South Player of the Year honors along with 13 Big South Freshman of the Year honors
- 28 All-America honors
- 11 Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in their respective sports
- 5 Academic All-America honors
- 4 national postgraduate scholarships
- 3 Big South Conference Christenberry Awards for Academic Excellence

With all the success, the Coastal Carolina department operated within a balanced budget during Yurachek's tenure, thanks to his zero-budget initiative and the unprecedented revenues generated since his arrival with his restructuring of the external relations department. In his first year, the department revenue was at $560,000, including $316,000 in ticket sales and sponsorships at $250,000. After the 2012-13 year, revenue came in at $1.4 million, thanks to $549,000 in ticket sales and $600,000 in sponsorships.

Since 2010, the Department of Athletics added women's lacrosse; launched Champions for Life, a life skills enhancement program for student-athletes; signed a five-year $1.1 million contract with an athletic apparel provider; established the Letterwinners Association; successfully completed NCAA Cycle 3 Recertification; and has been featured on the front page of the sports section of USA Today with the headline reading "Coastal Carolina Piles up Sports Success."

Also, during Yurachek's tenure, several major projects that supported intercollegiate athletics totaling more than $250 million were included in the University's ongoing capital improvements across the campus.

Prior to his appointment at Coastal Carolina University, Yurachek was executive senior associate athletics director at the University of Akron. He led and managed the Zips' external relations unit, which included marketing and promotions, media relations, ticket operations, development (Z-Fund), video operations and merchandising. In addition, he was the sport administrator for men's basketball, men's golf and women's golf and worked closely with the football program.

Yurachek has also held various athletics administration leadership positions at the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business management at Guilford College in 1990, where he was a four-year letter winner in basketball. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Richmond in 1994.

Born in Richmond, Va., and raised in Charlotte, N.C., Yurachek, and his wife Jennifer have three sons: Ryan, Jake and Brooks. Ryan, a former Marshall University football student-athlete, is a quality control analyst on the football staff at the University of South Carolina. Ryan and his wife Morgan reside in Columbia, S.C. Jake is a University of Arkansas graduate and former Razorback football student-athlete and now works within intercollegiate athletics at SMU. Brooks is a freshman at Wake Forest University where he is a member of Demon Deacons football team.
